WRECKED BY GAS EXPLOSION

Home of Fred Koppenhoefer is in Ruins, His Little Daughter Probably Fatally Injured and Harry Kline Badly Burned.

The dwelling shattered and twisted into a mass of wreckage that threatens momentarily to topple and complete the ruin, the furnishings extensively damaged, jumbled and tossed into a state of shapeless confusion, and two persons badly injured—one of them, it is believed, fatally—are the distressing results of a frightful explosion of gas at the residence of Frederick Koeppenhoefer, 65 Stophlet street, at 7 o'clock this morning.

The injured:—

Koeppenhoefer, Lucy, adopted daughter, 5 years old, fracture at the base of the skull; unconscious; condition extremely critical.

Kline, Harry E., 18 years old, 90 Stophlet street, clerk for Mr. Koeppenhoefer, badly burned about the upper part of face and hands; will recover.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The accident was a fearful one, and it presents some phases strikingly similar to the case on Hendricks street three years ago the present month, when the Nichter residence was wrecked by a gas explosion, and two members of the family were injured. Both of these recovered, however, while in the present instance the physicians are unable to hold out substantial hope that fatal consequences in the case of the little girl will be averted.

Mr. Koeppenhoefer is the proprietor of a meat market at 176 Broadway, and was at his place of business when the explosion occured. His family consists of himself, his wife and the little girl, Lucy, an adopted daughter, who will be five years of age in April. Harry Kline is a clerk and delivery boy employed at Mr. Koeppenhoefer's meat market, and was at work in the barn at the rear of the residence this morning caring for the horses, when he was called by Mrs. Koeppenhoefer to go beneath the house and thaw out water pipe which had become frozen up, cutting off the family's water supply.

The residence was a two-story frame structure, standing on the south side of Stophlet street, a short distance west of College street. At the rear of the main portion a kitchen, one story in height, had been built. Beneath this kitchen was the cellar, and the earth beneath the main portion of the house had not been excavated. Here there was a space of perhaps two feet between the ground and the joists, the space beneath the main portion being reached by an opening in the east wall of the cellar. A small door is hung at the aperature, and beside the opening through which the gas pipes pass, was the gas meter.

HE TOOK A CANDLE.

Kline says he did not relish the job of crawling beneath the house to thaw out the pipe, but he took a tallow candle which Mrs. Koeppenhoefer gave him and entered the cellar by way of the kitchen. Down cellar Kline lighted the candle and crawled through the opening beneath the main portion of the house. He was safely inside, crawling upon his hands and knees and making his way toward the northern part of the house where the water pipes enter.

Kline says he does not recall detecting the smell of escaping gas.

The first thing he realized was a blinding flash of flame, which enveloped his face, head, shoulders and hands. a muffled report like the discharge of a cannon at a distance and the swaying and crackling of timbers above him. The half-prostrate young man was thrown heavily backward by the force of the explosion, but he retained his presence of mind and hurridly scrambled to get out of the place. To do this it was necessary for him to turn completely around beneath the house, and reaching the small entrance through which he had come, Kline half scrambled and half fell back into the cellar from which he had first come. He clutched at a small cask sitting near, but it gave way and precipitated him head-foremost to the cellar floor, half buried beneath a mass of vinegar barrels, broken glass, etc.

HEARD MOTHER'S CRIES.

The young man heard Mrs. Koeppenhoefer frantically screaming, "Lucy!" while he was yet in the cellar, and hurrying upstairs he met the mother struggling to get out of the mass of wreckage in the sitting room, the bleeding form of the little daughter in her arms. Kline rushed to the telephone to call a physician, and a few minutes later, upon the urgent demands of others, hurried to his own home, where his injuries might receive attention.

The only occupant of the home at the time the explosion occurred was the little girl, Lucy, who had not yet awakened for the day. She was asleep upon a leather couch in the sitting room. Mrs. Koeppenhoefer had stepped out upon the rear porch upon some errand and was herself almost thrown to the ground by the force of the explosion. Her first thought was, of course, for the child and before the shock and crackling of the ruined home had ceased she dashed into the room where the little child had lain. It was apparently almost directly beneath the couch that the force of the explosion had been greatest, for the floor at that portion of the room was bulged upward at least two feet, the couch was overturned and the child was found unconscious in the bedding upon the floor.

SKULL IS FRACTURED.

Moaning piteously, the blood gushing from mouth, nose and ears in streams that saturated her night clothing, it was apparent at once that the little one was desperately injured. The mother picked her up and hurried outside, where she was met by her neighbor on the east, Mrs Fred Roesner, and the little one was carried into the Roesner home, where Dr. Schick, Dr. Maurice Rosenthal and Dr. McEvoy were hurried to attend her. The physicians found a very serious fracture at the base of the child's skull. There is no cut upon the scalp, and it is the opinion of the doctors that the skull fracture was the result of a fall; that the little one lying upon the couch was hurled upward by the frightful force of the explosion and in falling struck the floor with such force as to produce the fracture. The discharge of blood from the ears and nose was profuse, and while the patient was in such condition as to preclude an exhaustive examination, the indications point unerringly to an extensive fracture at the base of the skull.

Fatal consequences are rarely averted in an injury of this character, say the physicians, and they can hold out little hope for the recovery of the child. Mr. and Mrs. Koeppenhoefer were devotedly attached to the little girl, who was adopted by them about two years ago, and the grief of the foster mother this morning was pitiful, though neighbors were alert and profuse in their kindly ministrations.

KLINE NOT SERIOUS.

In the Kline home, farther down the street, Dr. Martz was summoned to attend the injuries of Harry Kline the young man who had crawled beneath the Koeppenhoefer house, and while his burns are very painful, Dr Martz does not anticipate any serious consequences.

Kline received the main force of the blaze upon the upper portion of his face, including the forehead and the region below the eyes. The cuticle had been burned so that it sloughed off, and the hair is considerably scorched, though it is not believed the eyes are injured, and Dr Martz seems confident the burns will heal without leaving a disfigurement Kline's right hand is extensively burned and there are some burns also upon the left, though not serious ones. The young fellow exhibits a great deal of pluck, and altogether considers himself remarkably fortunate to escape with his life.

CROWD CAME QUICKLY.

The report of the explosion startled the entire neighborhood, and a number of citizens in the vicinity saw the walls bulge outward and the chimneys topple a moment later. One of the first to reach the scene was William Whitfield, residing next door at 77 Stophlet street. Mr. Whitfield was cleaning snow from his sidewalk when the explosion occurred, and he hurried to the Koeppenhoefer premises, joined almost at the same time by George Unger, residing a few doors east. Others quickly gathered there, and by the time the fire department responded to the alarm which had been sent in by telephone, there was quite a crowd collected about the premises. Police officers were soon on hand, and an officer was on guard the greater part of the day to prevent the curious spectators from getting too close to the threatening walls.

FIRE SOON QUENCHED.

Those earliest upon the scene found that a tongue of flame had worked upwards through an aperature in the floor made by the separation of the west section of the house from that of the east, and carpets and curtains hanging in the archway were afire. The fire had gotten no headway, however, and was extinguished before the arrival of the department. News of the explosion traveled quickly, and within a few minutes dozens of vehicles were at the scene, and pedestrians came from every direction. A small army of amateur photographers has been taking snapshots of the wrecked building all day.

FORCE WAS FRIGHTFUL.

The wreck of the dwelling was very nearly complete, and the appearance of the structure indicated that the force of the explosion was terrific. The point of greatest explosive power is seen just above the foundations of the dwelling. The entire front of the house, full two stories in height, was blown out completely and practically intact, the lower portion now resting against some trees in the dooryard, while the upper edge is tilted back against the portion of the house still standing. The upper parts of the trees are littered with strings of window shades blown out with the glass and sash and lodged there. The west wall of the house is half torn away, the separation tearing the section holding the weatherboarding apart from the studding and the plastering. Another big bulge is apparent upon the east side of the house, and there are practically no windows left in any part of the building. The chimney upon the main portion was toppled over, while the upper portion of the kitchen chimney was simply slid over upon its foundation and is poised there ready to fall.

WRECKAGE INSIDE.

Inside the house is a picture of ruin. The floors in several of the rooms upon the lower floor are bulged upward, and great openings appear in the floor where the rooms join. Hardly a piece of furniture in the house remained upright. Stoves were overturned, furniture thrown about in confusion and badly damaged, the whole buried beneath a wreckage of plaster and debris.

Within a few minutes after the disaster occurred the Gas company had a representative on hand to turn off the gas, and lated Superintendent G. Max Huffman arrived to make an investigation. Mr. Huffman said he was unable at this time to make any statement concerning the explosion. It is clearly evident that there must have been an extensive collection of gas beneath the house, but it will require a more thorough examination to disclose the location of the leak. It appears that none of the members of the family had noted the presence of escaping gas, and Kline had on previous occasions made similar trips under the building to thaw out frozen water pipes

Mr. Koeppenhoefer, when asked this afternoon as to the damage done by the explosion, said it was impossible to make more than a rough estimate, but he believed it would be considerably in excess of $2,000.

Reports from the Roesner home, where the injured girl is being cared for this afternoon was to the effect that the little sufferer seemed to be resting somewhat easier, but the outcome can not be foretold.

GAVE THEM PRETTY PINS

FOUR WELL KNOWN A. O. U. W., MEN HONORED.

Their Fraternal Brethren Reward Them for Services Performed for the Order.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 19, A. O. U. W., presented four of its members with handsome pins emblematic of the order last evening. Three months ago this lodge decided to give a premium for the largest number of new members taken in during the quarter through the individual efforts of the members. The lodge was divided into quarters for contest purposes, each being captained by one of the promient members. During the quarter Seventy-three names were added to the roll, the captains receiving credit as follows: J. J. Bauer, 40; Jacob Hausbach, 17; A. C. Hobrock, 8, and James Hartnett, 8. The pins are of a beautiful design. The pin proper is a gold bar, bearing the name of the owner, and to this is attached by means of gold chains the pendant, which represents a shield and anchor, emblems of the order, and bears the letters A. O. U. W., and the number of the lodge, 19. Preceding the presentation the lodge initiated ten members, and following the presentation came a social session which continued until midnight.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Broughton, of Waterloo, are in the city this afternoon.

FOR A FULL VOTE

REPUBLICANS WILL WAIT ON TARIFF BILL.

BUT TWO DAYS FOR DEBATE

EXPECT TO PASS MEASURE WITHOUT TROUBLE.

CANAL TALK IN THE SENATE

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—One of the house leaders whose position gives him the fullest information as to the outlook of legislation, said today: "The program for considering the war revenue reduction bill is fully understood, but it is not desired to give those who oppose the majority the fullest information on the exact time of its consideration, in order to assist their opposition. One thing has been settled beyond any doubt—that the bill will be passed exactly as reported, except in minor verbal committee changes. The length of the debate will be about two days, which seems about reasonable, as there is no great pressure for time. As to when the debate will begin, it will hardly be next week, as some thirty republican members will be absent before and after Lincoln's birthday. So that it will not be taken up until there is a full republican attendance when it will be passed without amendment."

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 6.—At the conclusion of routine business in the senate today a bill declaring the international railway bridge over the St. Lawrence river, near Hogansburg, N. Y., a lawful structure, was passed.

Mr. Scott (rep.), of West Virginia, called up and had read a resolution which he offered several days ago providing for the appointment of a commission of experts to examine what is known as the San Blas, or Mandingo Bay route, for an isthmian waterway, and to report to the senate the cost of constructing an interoceanic canal by that route. He said that nearly one-fourth of the sum necessary to construct a canal by any of the routes proposed already had been expended in an endeavor to find a suitable route for an isthmian canal; but confronted as congress was by a proposed appropriation of nearly $200,000,000 for the building of an inter-oceanic waterway, it was the duty of prudent men carefully to investigate every possible route.

Mr. Scott concluded by strongly urging the adoption of his resolution, saying that he wished to be convinced of the practicability or impracticability of a ship tunnel, and had submitted his resolution as a pure business proposition.

Without objection the resolution was referred to the committee on inter-oceanic canals.

Mr. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, addressed the senate on his bill appropriating the receipts from the sale of public lands in certain states and territories to the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands. He claimed that the proposition was not a sectional one and said it would provide homes for many now homeless.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hansbrough's speech the irrigation bill was ordered to be the unfinished business when the Philippine tariff bill was disposed of.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the Philippine tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Lodge suggested some minor verbal amendments to the bill.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The consideration of the oleomargarine bill was laid aside in the house today and the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill was taken up. An attempt to limit general debate to two hours failed. Mr. Hemenway, of Indiana, in charge of the measure, explained its provision in general terms and pointed out the increase which it contained.

Under the latitude allowed in general debate Mr. Talbert, of South Carolina, made a speech in opposition emanating from the other side to cut down southern representation because of abridgement of the franchise.

At the conclusion of Mr. Talbert's remarks the bill was read for amendment under the five minute rule.

IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

Constantinople, Feb. 6.—The sultan's brother-in-law, Damad Mahmud pasha, has been sentenced to death. Mahmud has long been prominent in the young Turk movement, and was recently expelled from Greeno at the behest of the sultan. Mahmud went to Rome and the sultan requested his expulsion from Italy. It was refused, but Mahmud proceeded to Paris, where he remained in safety. All the sultan's blandishments failed to induce him to return to Constantinople, so the criminal court was instructed to issue a warrant for Mahmud's arrest and to try the fugitive by default, with the result that he was condemned to death.

BULGARIAN MINISTER IS ASSASSINATED.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 6.—M. Kamtcheff, the minister of public instructions, was assassinated today in his study, by a Macedonian, who pretended he wanted to present a petition. The assassin subsequently committed suicide by shooting himself.

BIG BARN IS BURNED TODAY

COSTLY MORNING BLAZE AT THE M'CULLOCH FARM.

Large Structure Is Totally Destroyed, Entailing a Loss Estimated at $3,000.

The big slate-roofed barn upon the farm of Charles McCulloch, along the line of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern electric road, a few miles southwest of the city, was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $3,000, and the insurance little more than half that sum.

Mr. McCulloch left for his farm immediately upon receipt of news of the fire. Before starting he stated that his information was to the effect that the blaze had resulted from an attempt to thaw out some frozen water pipes. Straw had been used a portion of the way to protect the pipes, and before the workmen were scarcely aware of it fire had been communicated to the straw. The effort to extinguish the flames was futile on account of a lack of water, and the men devoted their energies to removing the contents of the building.

The horses, cattle and farming implements were gotten from the building safely, but a large quantity of oats, hay and straw were consumed with the building.

GRAIN DEALERS IN THE CITY

WILL BANQUET AT THE RANDALL TONIGHT.

Members of the Ohio and Indiana Association in Fort Wayne to Celebrate Anniversary.

Members of the Ohio and Indiana Grain Dealers' association to the number of sixty-five or seventy are expected in Fort Wayne this evening to participate in the banquet that marks the first anniversary of the organization of the association. Quite a number of grain buyers had arrived at noon today, and others are coming in on every train this afternoon.

It is just one year ago since the grain dealers through this section of Indiana and adjacent counties across the Ohio line formed an organization to further their interests and to become better acquainted with others in the trade. William Tinkham, of Latty, O., is the president, and M. C. Niezer, of Monroeville, is secretary. The gathering in Fort Wayne today is said to be purely social in its nature, and the chief interest centers about the banquet which will be served at the Randall at 9 o'clock this evening.

President Tinkham will preside, and the program of responses is:

"Our Anniversary"—M. C. Niezer, Monroeville.

"The Grain Trade"—Dale McMillan, Van Wert.

"How to Treat Your Opponent"—William Green, Cecil, Ohio.

"Our Relations One to Another"—B. Huzer, Paulding, Ohio.

DOGS KILLED BIRDS.

Christian Vollreide, who has an aviary covering four acres at High and DeGroff streets, and is raising and domesticating English pheasants, suffered quite a loss last night. Dogs broke into the enclosure and killed ten of the birds.

GERMANY EMPHASIZES POSITION

High Official of the Government Declares That Germany Refused to Intervene in Favor of Spain Before War.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—The official British denial that Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington, on April 14, 1898, made a second proposal to the powers to remonstrate with the United States, was today laid before a high German official, whose functions give him absolute first hand knowledge of everything just as it occurred. He reaffirmed the statement made in these dispatches yesterday. Refering to his copious notes, he dictated therefrom, to the correspondent of the Associated Press the following data:

"On Feb. 14, the Spanish ambassador at Berlin asked the German government whether Germany was willing to head an European movement against the United States in defense of the monarchic principle. The next day the ambassador was informed by order of the emperor that Germany would under no circumstances take the action desired.

"Spain renewed her efforts in March, to secure some action by Germany, but she was again answered with a refusal. At the same time Dr. Von Holleben was instructed to only take part in any steps at Washington in the interests of peace if all the other five great powers participated. Then, on April 7, the joint note was handed to President McKinley.

"We were informed from Washington, on April 14, that the British ambassador there proposed a second collective note, declaring that armed intervention in Cuba would be unjustifiable. Again, upon the emperor's order the German representatives at Washington, Rome, Vienna and Madrid were instructed that Germany would refuse to participate in such a declaration, as she saw no prospect that anything could be accomplished thereby."

The correspondent of the Associated Press gets the impression that while the German government wishes to avoid the appearance of desiring to fall into the United States' arms, on the other hand she regards it as important to controvert the wrong impressions that Germany was disposed to do anything unfriendly to the United States.

SCHLEY WILL NOT TALK.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Admiral Schley was asked for a statement concerning the Washington Post's report sent out last night as to the verdict of the president being adverse to Schley. He said: "I have received no news from Washington concerning the response which President Roosevelt will deliver upon my appeal from the verdict of the court of inquiry. Had I done so, I would not be in a position to discuss it. I do not expect to receive any information until I reach Washington."

"YOUNG GRIFFO" INSANE.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—"Young Griffo," the pugilist, was adjudged insane today and ordered sent to an asylum. The prize fighter some months ago was an inmate of an asylum, but he was given his freedom when it was thought that he was cured. During the recent cold snap "Griffo's" feet and hands were frozen, and although it was not found necessary to amputate them, the pain is said to have done much to unsettle the patient's mind.

DIED AT RICHMOND, VA.

A telegram to Mrs. J. B. White, sr., last evening, from her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Morris, of Richmond, Va., announced the death of Mrs. Swazey, the mother of Mr. Morris, at her home in that city. Mrs. Swazey has frequently visited in Fort Wayne, and had many friends here. The funeral services are to be held in Chicago Saturday morning.

Prof. B. B. Bartholomew entertained a number of gentlemen friends at a stag party last evening, in honor of Ed J. Engle, who left today to accept the foremanship of the Sinclair Electric company. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

KILLED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Lafayette, Feb. 6.—A natural gas explosion today wrecked the home of John Dorsen. Dorsen was instantly killed and his wife was dangerously injured.

MOB HANGS A NEGRO.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Eulene Whittaker, colored, charged with the murder of John Doster three weeks ago, was taken from jail at Lynchburg last night and hanged by a mob. Whittaker's case was called in court yesterday and continued. During the night the mob appeared and securing possession of the negro hanged him to the court house yard, where he was hanged.

SLAIN IN POWDER EXPLOSION

FATAL ACCIDENT AT TELLURIDE (COL.) MINE.

Several Hundred Pounds of Powder is Exploded, Killing Two and Injuring Others.

Telluride, Col., Feb. 6.—Two men are dead and four others seriously injured as the result of an explosion of several hundred pounds of powder in the powder house at the mouth of Japan tunnel.

The dead:

D. R. O'Connell, aged 45; married.

Alphonso Fiarieta, aged 23.

Injured:

John Franck, shift boss; Santino Marta, powder thawer, will lose one and probably both eyes and badly hurt about back; C. C. Weir, water packer; Henry Meldrum, blacksmith.

All buildings around the tunnel are a complete wreck.

Marta, who was thawing powder in the powder house stepped out of the building for a moment and the powder, becoming heated, exploded. About 400 yards distant was stored tons of dynamite. The door of the building was blown in, but the dynamite was undisturbed.

NEW BAKING CONCERN HERE

WILL HAVE CAPITAL $30,000 TO START WITH.

Well Known Capitalists of the City are Identified With the New Company.

Another large baking concern is about to organize in this city and several prominent Fort Wayne capitalists are backing the new project, which will assume definite shape within a very few days. The concern is yet in the embryo and no definite action will be taken until the full amount of the proposed capitalization is subscribed.

The new concern will be capitalized at $30,000, according to the present plans of the projectors, and of this amount more than $25,000 has already been subscribed. The list of stockholders include a number of the leading business men of the city, among them being Messrs. Dan Riley, John Schwisters, M. Freiburger, Herman and George F. Felts, Gottlieb Haller, Henry Bealig and several others.

It is proposed to manufacture a full line of crackers and cakes and in addition there will be a department devoted exclusively to the baking of bread and bakers' cakes.

Several very desirable locations for the new company are now under consideration and a centrally located property can be secured without difficulty. Several stockholders favor the construction of a building to cost about $25,000 and an option has been secured on a fine piece of downtown property with this end in view.

A meeting of the stockholders will be held the latter part of this week or early next week, when an organization will be effected. It is proposed to employ between thirty and fifty people and this force will be increased as the business warrants.

Fort Wayne friends have just received news of the death of Miss Prue Covington, which occurred Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Davis, at Newton, Kans. Miss Covington was quite well known in this city, and last summer visited her brother, Wilmuth Covington, of Adams township, and many friends in Fort Wayne.

R. D. Smith has purchased an interest in the Henry County News, Holgate, Ohio, and Hunter Smith will take charge.

FIRE SOON QUENCHED.

Those earliest upon the scene found that a tongue of flame had worked upwards through an aperature in the floor made by the separation of the west section of the house from that of the east, and carpets and curtains hanging in the archway were afire. The fire had gotten no headway, however, and was extinguished before the arrival of the department. News of the explosion traveled quickly, and within a few minutes dozens of vehicles were at the scene, and pedestrians came from every direction. A small army of amateur photographers has been taking snapshots of the wrecked building all day.

FORCE WAS FRIGHTFUL.

The wreck of the dwelling was very nearly complete, and the appearance of the structure indicated that the force of the explosion was terrific. The point of greatest explosive power is seen just above the foundations of the dwelling. The entire front of the house, full two stories in height, was blown out completely and practically intact, the lower portion now resting against some trees in the dooryard, while the upper edge is tilted back against the portion of the house still standing. The upper parts of the trees are littered with strings of window shades blown out with the glass and sash and lodged there. The west wall of the house is half torn away, the separation tearing the section holding the weatherboarding apart from the studding and the plastering. Another big bulge is apparent upon the east side of the house, and there are practically no windows left in any part of the building. The chimney upon the main portion was toppled over, while the upper portion of the kitchen chimney was simply slid over upon its foundation and is poised there ready to fall.

WRECKAGE INSIDE.

Inside the house is a picture of ruin. The floors in several of the rooms upon the lower floor are bulged upward, and great openings appear in the floor where the rooms join. Hardly a piece of furniture in the house remained upright. Stoves were overturned, furniture thrown about in confusion and badly damaged, the whole buried beneath a wreckage of plaster and debris.

Within a few minutes after the disaster occurred the Gas company had a representative on hand to turn off the gas, and lated Superintendent G. Max Huffman arrived to make an investigation. Mr. Huffman said he was unable at this time to make any statement concerning the explosion. It is clearly evident that there must have been an extensive collection of gas beneath the house, but it will require a more thorough examination to disclose the location of the leak. It appears that none of the members of the family had noted the presence of escaping gas, and Kline had on previous occasions made similar trips under the building to thaw out frozen water pipes.

Mr. Koeppenhoefer, when asked this afternoon as to the damage done by the explosion, said it was impossible to make more than a rough estimate, but he believed it would be considerably in excess of $2,000.

Reports from the Roesner home, where the injured girl is being cared for this afternoon was to the effect that the little sufferer seemed to be resting somewhat easier, but the outcome can not be foretold.

GAVE THEM PRETTY PINS

FOUR WELL KNOWN A. O. U. W., MEN HONORED.

Their Fraternal Brethren Reward Them for Services Performed for the Order.

Fort Wayne lodge, No. 19, A. O. U. W., presented four of its members with handsome pins emblematic of the order last evening. Three months ago this lodge decided to give a premium for the largest number of new members taken in during the quarter through the individual efforts of the members. The lodge was divided into quarters for contest purposes, each being captained by one of the promient members. During the quarter Seventy-three names were added to the roll, the captains receiving credit as follows: J. J. Bauer, 40; Jacob Hausbach, 17; A. C. Hobrock, 8, and James Hartnett, 8. The pins are of a beautiful design. The pin proper is a gold bar, bearing the name of the owner, and to this is attached by means of gold chains the pendant, which represents a shield and anchor, emblems of the order, and bears the letters A. O. U. W., and the number of the lodge, 19. Preceding the presentation the lodge initiated ten members, and following the presentation came a social session which continued until midnight.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Breughton, of Waterloo, are in the city this afternoon.

FOR A FULL VOTE

REPUBLICANS WILL WAIT ON TARIFF BILL.

BUT TWO DAYS FOR DEBATE

EXPECT TO PASS MEASURE WITHOUT TROUBLE.

CANAL TALK IN THE SENATE

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—One of the house leaders whose position gives him the fullest information as to the outlook of legislation, said today: "The program for considering the war revenue reduction bill is fully understood, but it is not desired to give those who oppose the majority the fullest information on the exact time of its consideration, in order to assist their opposition. One thing has been settled beyond any doubt—that the bill will be passed exactly as reported, except in minor verbal committee changes. The length of the debate will be about two days, which seems about reasonable, as there is no great pressure for time. As to when the debate will begin, it will hardly be next week, as some thirty republican members will be absent before and after Lincoln's birthday. So that it will not be taken up until there is a full republican attendance when it will be passed without amendment."

IN THE SENATE.

Washington, Feb. 6.—At the conclusion of routine business in the senate today a bill declaring the international railway bridge over the St. Lawrence river, near Hogansburg, N. Y., a lawful structure, was passed.

Mr. Scott (rep.), of West Virginia, called up and had read a resolution which he offered several days ago providing for the appointment of a commission of experts to examine what is known as the San Blas, or Mundingo Bay route, for an isthmian waterway, and to report to the senate the cost of constructing an interoceanic canal by that route. He said that nearly one-fourth of the sum necessary to construct a canal by any of the routes proposed already had been expended in an endeavor to find a suitable route for an isthmian canal; but confronted as congress was by a proposed appropriation of nearly $200,000,000 for the building of an inter-oceanic waterway, it was the duty of prudent men carefully to investigate every possible route.

Mr. Scott concluded by strongly urging the adoption of his resolution, saying that he wished to be convinced of the practicability or impracticability of a ship tunnel, and had submitted his resolution as a pure business proposition.

Without objection the resolution was referred to the committee on inter-oceanic canals.

Mr. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, addressed the senate on his bill appropriating the receipts from the sale of public lands in certain states and territories to the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands. He claimed that the proposition was not a sectional one and said it would provide homes for many now homeless.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hansbrough's speech the irrigation bill was ordered to be the unfinished business when the Philippine tariff bill was disposed of.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the Philippine tariff bill was taken up. Mr. Lodge suggested some minor verbal amendments to the bill.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The consideration of the oleomargarine bill was laid aside in the house today and the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill was taken up. An attempt to limit general debate to two hours failed. Mr. Hemenway, of Indiana, in charge of the measure, explained its provision in general terms and pointed out the increase which it contained.

Under the latitude allowed in general debate Mr. Talbert, of South Carolina, made a speech in opposition emanating from the other side to cut down southern representation because of abridgement of the franchise.

At the conclusion of Mr. Talbert's remarks the bill was read for amendment under the five minute rule.

IS CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

Constantinople, Feb. 6.—The sultan's brother-in-law, Damad Mahmud pasha, has been sentenced to death. Mahmud has long been prominent in the young Turk movement, and was recently expelled from Greece at the behest of the sultan. Mahmud went to Rome and the sultan requested his expulsion from Italy. It was refused, but Mahmud proceeded to Paris, where he remained in safety. All the sultan's blandishments failed to induce him to return to Constantinople, so the criminal court was instructed to issue a warrant for Mahmud's arrest and to try the fugitive by default, with the result that he was condemned to death.

BULGARIAN MINISTER IS ASSASSINATED.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 6.—M. Kamtcheff, the minister of public instructions, was assassinated today in his study, by a Macedonian, who pretended he wanted to present a petition. The assassin subsequently committed suicide by shooting himself.

BIG BARN IS BURNED TODAY

COSTLY MORNING BLAZE AT THE M'CULLOCH FARM.

Large Structure Is Totally Destroyed, Entailing a Loss Estimated at $3,000.

The big slate-roofed barn upon the farm of Charles McCulloch, along the line of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern electric road, a few miles southwest of the city, was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $3,000, and the insurance little more than half that sum.

Mr. McCulloch left for his farm immediately upon receipt of news of the fire. Before starting he stated that his information was to the effect that the blaze had resulted from an attempt to thaw out some frozen water pipes. Straw had been used a portion of the way to protect the pipes, and before the workmen were scarcely aware of it fire had been communicated to the straw. The effort to extinguish the flames was futile on account of a lack of water, and the men devoted their energies to removing the contents of the building.

The horses, cattle and farming implements were gotten from the building safely, but a large quantity of oats, hay and straw were consumed with the building.

GRAIN DEALERS IN THE CITY

WILL BANQUET AT THE RANDALL TONIGHT.

Members of the Ohio and Indiana Association in Fort Wayne to Celebrate Anniversary.

Members of the Ohio and Indiana Grain Dealers' association to the number of sixty-five or seventy are expected in Fort Wayne this evening to participate in the banquet that marks the first anniversary of the organization of the association. Quite a number of grain buyers had arrived at noon today, and others are coming in on every train this afternoon.

It is just one year ago since the grain dealers through this section of Indiana and adjacent counties across the Ohio line formed an organization to further their interests and to become better acquainted with others in the trade. William Tinkham, of Latty, O., is the president, and M. C. Niezer, of Monroeville, is secretary. The gathering in Fort Wayne today is said to be purely social in its nature, and the chief interest centers about the banquet which will be served at the Randall at 9 o'clock this evening.

President Tinkham will preside, and the program of responses is:

"Our Anniversary"—M. C. Niezer, Monroeville.

"The Grain Trade"—Dale McMillan, Van Wert.

"How to Treat Your Opponent"—William Green, Cecil, Ohio.

"Our Relations One to Another"—B. Huzer, Paulding, Ohio.

DOGS KILLED BIRDS.

Christian Vollreide, who has an aviary covering four acres at High and DeGroff streets, and is raising and domesticating English pheasants, suffered quite a loss last night. Dogs broke into the enclosure and killed ten of the birds.

GERMANY EMPHASIZES POSITION

High Official of the Government Declares That Germany Refused to Intervene in Favor of Spain Before War.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—The official British denial that Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador at Washington, on April 14, 1898, made a second proposal to the powers to remonstrate with the United States, was today laid before a high German official, whose functions give him absolute first hand knowledge of everything just as it occurred. He reaffirmed the statement made in these dispatches yesterday. Refering to his copious notes, he dictated therefrom, to the correspondent of the Associated Press the following data:

"On Feb. 14, the Spanish ambassador at Berlin asked the German government whether Germany was willing to head an European movement against the United States in defense of the monarchic principle. The next day the ambassador was informed by order of the emperor that Germany would under no circumstances take the action desired.

"Spain renewed her efforts in March, to secure some action by Germany, but she was again answered with a refusal. At the same time Dr. Von Holleben was instructed to only take part in any steps at Washington in the interests of peace if all the other five great powers participated. Then, on April 7, the joint note was handed to President McKinley.

"We were informed from Washington, on April 14, that the British ambassador there proposed a second collective note, declaring that armed intervention in Cuba would be unjustifiable. Again, upon the emperor's order the German representatives at Washington, Rome, Vienna and Madrid were instructed that Germany would refuse to participate in such a declaration, as she saw no prospect that anything could be accomplished thereby."

The correspondent of the Associated Press gets the impression that while the German government wishes to avoid the appearance of desiring to fall into the United States' arms, on the other hand she regards it as important to controvert the wrong impressions that Germany was disposed to do anything unfriendly to the United States.

SCHLEY WILL NOT TALK.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Admiral Schley was asked for a statement concerning the Washington Post's report sent out last night as to the verdict of the president being adverse to Schley. He said: "I have received no news from Washington concerning the response which President Roosevelt will deliver upon my appeal from the verdict of the court of inquiry. Had I done so, I would not be in a position to discuss it. I do not expect to receive any information until I reach Washington."

"YOUNG GRIFFO" INSANE.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—"Young Griffo," the pugilist, was adjudged insane today and ordered sent to an asylum. The prize fighter some months ago was an inmate of an asylum, but he was given his freedom when it was thought that he was cured. During the recent cold snap "Griffo's" feet and hands were frozen, and although it was not found necessary to amputate them, the pain is said to have done much to unsettle the patient's mind.

DIED AT RICHMOND, VA.

A telegram to Mrs. J. B. White, sr., last evening, from her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Morris, of Richmond, Va., announced the death of Mrs. Swazey, the mother of Mr. Morris, at her home in that city. Mrs. Swazey has frequently visited in Fort Wayne, and had many friends here. The funeral services are to be held in Chicago Saturday morning.

Prof. B. B. Bartholomew entertained a number of gentlemen friends at a stag party last evening, in honor of Ed J. Engle, who left today to accept the foremanship of the Sinclair Electric company. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

KILLED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Lafayette, Feb. 6.—A natural gas explosion today wrecked the home of John Dorsen. Dorsen was instantly killed and his wife was dangerously injured.

MOB HANGS A NEGRO.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Euless Whittaker, colored, charged with the murder of John Doster three weeks ago, was taken from jail at Lynchburg last night and hanged by a mob. Whittaker's case was called in court yesterday and continued. During the night the mob appeared and securing possession of the negro hurried him to the court house yard, where he was hanged.

SLAIN IN POWDER EXPLOSION

FATAL ACCIDENT AT TELLURIDE (COL.) MINE.

Several Hundred Pounds of Powder is Exploded, Killing Two and Injuring Others.

Telluride, Col., Feb. 6.—Two men are dead and four others seriously injured as the result of an explosion of several hundred pounds of powder in the powder house at the mouth of Japan tunnel.

The dead:

D. R. O'Connell, aged 45; married.

Alphonso Flarleta, aged 22.

Injured:

John Franck, shift boss; Santino Marta, powder thawer, will lose one and probably both eyes and badly hurt about back; C. C. Weir, water packer; Henry Meldrum, blacksmith.

All buildings around the tunnel are a complete wreck.

Marta, who was thawing powder in the powder house stepped out of the building for a moment and the powder, becoming heated, exploded. About 400 yards distant was stored tons of dynamite. The door of the building was blown in, but the dynamite was undisturbed.

NEW BAKING CONCERN HERE

WILL HAVE CAPITAL $30,000 TO START WITH.

Well Known Capitalists of the City are Identified With the New Company.

Another large baking concern is about to organize in this city and several prominent Fort Wayne capitalists are backing the new project, which will assume definite shape within a very few days. The concern is yet in the embryro and no definite action will be taken until the full amount of the proposed capitalization is subscribed.

The new concern will be capitalized at $30,000, according to the present plans of the projectors, and of this amount more than $25,000 has already been subscribed. The list of stockholders include a number of the leading business men of the city, among them being Messrs. Dan Riley, John Schwieters, N. Freiburger, Herman and George F. Felts, Gottlieb Haller, Henry Seelig and several others.

It is proposed to manufacture a full line of crackers and cakes and in addition there will be a department devoted exclusively to the baking of bread and bakers' cakes.

Several very desirable locations for the new company are now under consideration and a centrally located property can be secured without difficulty. Several stockholders favor the construction of a building to cost about $25,000 and an option has been secured on a fine piece of downtown property with this end in view.

A meeting of the stockholders will be held the latter part of this week or early next week, when an organization will be effected. It is proposed to employ between thirty and fifty people and this force will be increased as the business warrants.

Fort Wayne friends have just received news of the death of Miss Prue Covington, which occurred Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Davis, at Newton, Mass. Miss Covington was quite well known in this city, and last summer visited her brother, Thomas Covington, of Aboit township, as well as friends in Fort Wayne.

R. D. Smith has purchased an interest in the Henry County News, of Holgate, Ohio, and leaves soon to take charge.

ACT QUICKLY.

DELAY HAS BEEN DANGEROUS IN FORT WAYNE.

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in times of danger.

Backache is kidney danger.

Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.

Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.

Plenty of evidence to prove this.

Mrs. J. R. Brockerman, of No. 9 Liberty street, says: "My husband and I both found Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, a most worthy remedy, and one that we can highly recommend. Before I took them my kidneys were in a very bad shape. My back ached continually and was so lame and weak I could not stoop and get up again. When I lay down my husband had to help me up. I had dizzy spells and everything whirled so that I almost lost my balance. Doan's Kidney Pills had a most beneficial effect on me and I enjoyed better health than I had before in months. My husband also took some of the two boxes we had, and he was greatly benefited."

J. M. SPANN DEAD

STRICKEN IN UNION STATION AT INDIANAPOLIS.

FELL TO FLOOR AND EXPIRED

ABOUT TO TAKE TRAIN FOR FORT WAYNE.

A LEADING BUSINESS MAN

WAS A TRUSTEE OF THE STATE SCHOOL HERE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6.—John M. Spann, one of the most prominent of the insurance and real estate men of this city, died suddenly at 6 o'clock last evening at the Union station as he was about to take a train for Fort Wayne. He purchased his ticket, and, leaving the window, stepped toward the desk in the center of the room for the purpose, as it is thought, of signing his mileage ticket. Before reaching the desk he fell face downward upon the floor.

C. Schroeder, a druggist of Shelbyville, and P. P. Fettig, also of Shelbyville, were standing near him. They hastened to his side. Mr. Schroeder turned him over, and, seeing his condition, attempted to start the respiration, which had stopped. Then Mr. Spann was carried into the northeast waiting room, where the efforts to revive him were continued, but without avail. He lived about five minutes after falling. Mr. Schroeder, when he first reached him, asked him if he could tell something of his condition and his name, but received no response, and Mr. Spann did not recover consciousness.

The body was taken in the city dispensary ambulance to the city morgue, but as soon as its identity became known it was moved by C. E. Kregelo, undertaker, to the family home at 25 West Drive, Woodruff Place.

Mr. Spann was apparently in his usual health before leaving home, and when he left his office late in the afternoon said to his brother-in-law, Mr. Hanckel:

"My work is finished and I'm going away."

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Mr. Spann was born April 29, 1850, in this city, which was his home except for about nine years, when he resided at Malone, N. Y., where he was engaged in the hardware business. After completing his school years he became associated here with his father, John S. Spann, who died about two years ago, in the real estate and insurance business. He took a prominent part in the business until he went to Malone. He was married there to Miss Sarah L. Lawrence, a daughter of D. W. Lawrence, a prominent man of that village. He returned to Indianapolis about ten years ago and again became a member of the firm of John S. Spann & Co. He was prominent in most public movements and enterprises of Indianapolis. He was closely identified with the business of insurance and real estate and was an authority on subjects in connection therewith.

He was secretary of the Indianapolis Fire Insurance company, president of the Commercial club, a trustee of the Second Presbyterian church, of which he had been a member for thirty years, and president of the board of trustees for the State school for Feeble-Minded Youth at Fort Wayne.

Surviving him are his widow, two children, Benjamin and Gertrude, the latter now in school in Washington City; his mother, Mrs. Hester A. Spann; two brothers, Thomas H. Spann and Henry M. Spann, and a sister, Mrs. Henry S. Hanckel, all residing in this city.

WAS COMING TO FORT WAYNE.

Hon. John M. Spann, whose almost tragic death at Indianapolis last night has so greatly shocked his numerous friends here, was president of the board of trustees for the Indiana school for feeble-minded and was en route to this city to attend a meeting of the board when stricken. The board met in regular session today with Trustees Mrs. Mary R. Harper and Ed. M. Wilson. Pressing and important business required the session of the board. Bills were to be allowed and other matters essential to the conduct of the institution could not be delayed, and though with sad hearts, the board met as expected. Governor Durbin telegraphed the board today as follows:

"Indianapolis, Feb. 6.—I regret to inform you of the death of Hon. John M. Spann, which occurred suddenly last evening.

"Winfield T. Durbin."

To this the board replied as follows:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 6.—Hon. Winfield T. Durbin, Governor, Indianapolis, Ind.: The trustees of the Indiana school in regular session, hear with deep regret of the death of their president, Hon. John M. Spann, whose warm heart and mature judgment have so long made him an invaluable councellor and trusted friend.

"Mrs. Mary R. Harper,
"Ed. M. Wilson."

No news regarding the funeral has as yet been received here.

HAD MANY RELATIVES HERE

MRS. SAMUEL KUNKLE, ADAMS COUNTY PIONEER, DEAD.

Passed Away This Morning at Her Home in Monmouth—Other Mortuary Matters Today.

Mrs. Samuel Kunkle, an old pioneer of Adams county, died this morning at 2 o'clock at her home in Monmouth, Ind., a town on the Grand Rapids and Indiana, about two miles north of Decatur, where she has lived with her husband for the past fifty years or more. She was seventy-seven years old and her death was due to the infirmities of age.

She was the oldest member of the Derwin family, one of the most closely connected with the early settlement of Adams county.

Of her Fort Wayne relatives C. J. Winch is a brother-in-law and his immediate family being nieces and nephews. Dr. Miles F. Porter is also a nephew.

Her husband, Samuel Kunkle, who is eighty-three years old, and four children survive her—R. S. Peterson, Decatur, Ind.; Mrs. E. K. Bell, Decatur, Ind.; Mrs. A. L. DeVilbiss, Lancaster, O., and Calvin D. Kunkle of Monmouth, Ind.

Funeral services will be held at the house next Sunday morning.

WISCHMEIER.

Mrs. Henry Wischmeier, residing at Bingen, Adams county, died on Tuesday from a complication of diseases, at the age of 60 years. Surviving are the husband and eleven children. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. William Moellering and Mrs. Heitkamp, of this city.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the residence in Bingen.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO RAPIST

Nicholasville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Tom Brown, a negro under arrest on the charge of having assaulted Miss Emma Powell yesterday, was hanged in the court house yard today by a mob. Early today a mob surrounded the jail where Brown was confined and demanded the prisoner. The mob was finally placated by the statement from the officers that the prisoner would be taken before Miss Powell for identification. The officers were permitted to take the prisoner to the young woman's home, where she at once identified him.

On the way back to the jail the mob suddenly closed in and secured the prisoner. Hurrying him to the court house yard he was soon dangling from a limb of a tree.

Miss Emma Powell is 16 years old and was on her way home from school when the negro sprang out from the roadside and seized her. She reached home finally in a dazed condition and officers later captured the negro. A mob made an unsuccessful attempt to storm the jail last night.

DEFENDANT ACQUITTED.

In the disbarment proceedings of Rogers vs. Robbins, venued here from Starke county, Judge O'Rourke this afternoon rendered a decision acquitting the defendant of all the seven counts preferred against him. Subsequently he dismissed the case of Robbins vs. Rogers for damages.

TO GUARD PRINCE

EVERY PRECAUTION TAKEN FOR HIS SAFETY.

GUEST LIST IS SCANNED

NO DOUBTFUL PERSON TO BE AT LAUNCHING.

WATCHFUL OF ANARCHISTS

DETECTIVES OF ALL NATIONS TO BE PRESENT.

New York, Feb. 6.—Wallace W. Downey, member of the firm which is building Emperor William's yacht, has returned from a conference with President Roosevelt. The president is said to have asked particularly about the arrangements as to the crowds at the launching. He is said to have told Mr. Downey that Prince Henry is to be the guest of the nation and that the nation will be responsible for his safety. For that reason great care is imperative in editing the list of guests and seeing that no one not vouched for by a responsible person shall be permitted to attend. Mr. Downey has had charge of all the arrangements for the launching and all the invitations are to be sent from his office. Lists are to be furnished him by the German embassy, the president and Mayor Low. In addition to the names on these lists the firm will invite a number of friends and fellow shipbuilders. It was to prevent a too wide distribution of courtesies that the authorities have been careful to restrict the number of invited guests. Every name must be vised by the secret service bureau at Washington. No name not vouched for in the most satisfactory manner will be allowed to remain on the list.

The New York naval militia, 500 strong, will act as special guard for the prince and the president at the launching. It will be formed in a double line from the pier on which the prince, President Roosevelt and the launching party will land, and through the line the party will march to the launching stage to be erected under the bow of the Motor.

A large force of secret service men from Washington, central office men and policemen in uniform will also be on duty. A squad of secret service men representing all foreign nations also will be present to see that no crank is permitted to get near the prince. These latter officials, the leading men in their line of work in the greatest European capitals, will, it is stated, accompany the prince on his tour of the country.

PILLERS DIVORCE CASE.

About the warmest proposition in the way of a divorce trial heard of recently in this county is that of Mary vs. W. E. Pillers today being heard before Judge Branyan, of Huntington, sitting as special judge in the superior court. There are complaints and cross-complaints, all alleging things that if true would tend to disrupt a happy home, and the evidence is being listened to with wrapt attention by an audience that completely packs the large court room. Mrs. Pillers was put on the stand at 10:30 this morning and was dismissed at 2:30.

With all respect to all other witnesses that have appeared before an Allen county bar or court, Mrs. Pillers is in the estimation of the court artist of The Sentinel entitled to a seat in the first row. Her evidence was all the time clear, concise and often incisive, and while many embarrassing questions were asked of her she never faltered. Judge Branyan overruled many objections, holding that while the evidence admitted might affect a jury, he did not believe it would affect the court and he wanted to hear all the particulars.

INDIANA MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE.

The Oldest, the Largest, and the Best —Thirty Years' Experience.

Many Imitators, But no Equal.

Permit us to call the attention of our readers to the important fact that there are three essential steps in the successful treatment of disease. First, a correct diagnosis; second, the selection of the proper remedies in their best possible form, and third, a thorough knowledge of knowing how to prepare these remedies and their physiological effects upon the human body, in order to effect a cure. In the three above named facts Dr. D. W. Tucker has no equal in the state of Indiana. He has treated many thousands of cases within the last Thirty Years.

If one fourth of the people that are now in the cemetery had consulted and been treated by some good Specialist in place of their family doctor, they would have lived twenty years longer. Only a Specialist, who thoroughly understands Chronic Diseases, can treat them successfully. Dr. Tucker is without doubt the ablest specialist in this state and has treated and cured more cases of Chronic and Private Diseases than all the other Specialists in this state combined.

A doctor that has restored thousands to health, and can produce undeniable proof of the fact, must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Dr. Tucker, which cannot be equaled by any other specialist in the United States. His success is the result of THIRTY YEARS of careful study, extensive research, observation and remarkable experience in the treatment and cure of thousands of chronic and private diseases of the Brain, Heart, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Rectum, Gleet, Impotency, Nervous Diseases, Catarrh, Piles, Varicocele, Strictures, and all private diseases of both sexes. If Dr. Tucker cannot cure you no other specialist in the United States can. He has deposited in bank ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS that he has treated more cases of chronic diseases and performed more remarkable cures than any THREE SPECIALISTS in the State of Indiana. He will not deceive you, and guarantees to cure every case he takes for treatment. He is vouched for by the best banks and citizens of the state.

Mrs. J. R. Brockerman, of No. 9 Liberty street, says: "My husband and I both found Doan's Kidney Pills, sold at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, a most worthy remedy, and one that we can highly recommend. Before I took them my kidneys were in a very bad shape. My back ached continually and was so lame and weak I could not stoop and get up again. When I lay down my husband had to help me up. I had dizzy spells and everything whirled so that I almost lost my balance. Doan's Kidney Pills had a most beneficial effect on me and I enjoyed better health than I had before in months. My husband also took some of the two boxes we had, and he was greatly benefited."

J. M. SPANN DEAD

STRICKEN IN UNION STATION AT INDIANAPOLIS.

FELL TO FLOOR AND EXPIRED ABOUT TO TAKE TRAIN FOR FORT WAYNE.

A LEADING BUSINESS MAN WAS A TRUSTEE OF THE STATE SCHOOL HERE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 6.—John M. Spann, one of the most prominent of the insurance and real estate men of this city, died suddenly at 6 o'clock last evening at the Union station as he was about to take a train for Fort Wayne. He purchased his ticket, and, leaving the window stepped toward the desk in the center of the room for the purpose, as it is thought, of signing his mileage ticket. Before reaching the desk he fell face downward upon the floor.

C. Schroeder, a druggist of Shelbyville, and P. P. Fettig, also of Shelbyville, were standing near him. They hastened to his side. Mr. Schroeder turned him over, and, seeing his condition, attempted to start the respiration, which had stopped. Then Mr. Spann was carried into the northeast waiting room, where the efforts to revive him were continued, but without avail. He lived about five minutes after falling. Mr. Schroeder, when he first reached him, asked him if he could tell something of his condition and his name, but received no response, and Mr. Spann did not recover consciousness.

The body was taken in the city dispensary ambulance to the city morgue, but as soon as its identity became known it was moved by C. E. Krogelo, undertaker, to the family home at 25 West Drive, Woodruff Place.

Mr. Spann was apparently in his usual health before leaving home, and when he left his office late in the afternoon said to his brother-in-law, Mr. Hanckel:

"My work is finished and I'm going away."

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Mr. Spann was born April 29, 1850, in this city, which was his home except for about nine years, when he resided at Malone, N. Y., where he was engaged in the hardware business. After completing his school years he became associated here with his father, John S. Spann, who died about two years ago, in the real estate and insurance business. He took a prominent part in the business until he went to Malone. He was married there to Miss Sarah L. Lawrence, a daughter of D. W. Lawrence, a prominent man of that village. He returned to Indianapolis about ten years ago and again became a member of the firm of John S. Spann & Co. He was prominent in most public movements and enterprises of Indianapolis. He was closely identified with the business of insurance and real estate and was an authority on subjects in connection therewith.

He was secretary of the Indianapolis Fire Insurance company, president of the Commercial club, a trustee of the Second Presbyterian church, of which he had been a member for thirty years, and president of the board of trustees for the State school for Feeble-Minded Youth at Fort Wayne.

Surviving him are his widow, two children, Benjamin and Gertrude, the latter now in school in Washington City; his mother, Mrs. Hester A. Spann; two brothers, Thomas H. Spann and Henry M. Spann, and a sister, Mrs. Henry S. Hanckel, all residing in this city.

WAS COMING TO FORT WAYNE.

Hon. John M. Spann, whose almost tragic death at Indianapolis last night has so greatly shocked his numerous friends here, was president of the board of trustees for the Indiana school for feeble-minded and was en route to this city to attend a meeting of the board when stricken. The board met in regular session today with Trustees Mrs. Mary R. Harper and Ed. M. Wilson. Pressing and important business required the session of the board. Bills were to be allowed and other matters essential to the conduct of the institution could not be delayed, and though with sad hearts, the board met as expected. Governor Durbin telegraphed the board today as follows:

"Indianapolis, Feb. 6.—I regret to inform you of the death of Hon. John M. Spann, which occurred suddenly last evening.

"Winfield T. Durbin."

To this the board replied as follows:

"Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 6.—Hon. Winfield T. Durbin, Governor, Indianapolis, Ind.: The trustees of the Indiana school in regular session, hear with deep regret of the death of their president, Hon. John M. Spann, whose warm heart and mature judgment have so long made him an invaluable councellor and trusted friend.

"Mrs. Mary R. Harper,
"Ed. M. Wilson."

No news regarding the funeral has as yet been received here.

REV. HARRIS' SERMON.

At the West Creighton Avenue Church of Christ this evening Rev. Harris will endeavor to lend assistance in answering the question, "What think ye of Christ?" At the service this evening Prof. Howes, the singing evangelist, will render the solo, "Where Will You Spend Eternity?"

HAD MANY RELATIVES HERE

MRS. SAMUEL KUNKLE, ADAMS COUNTY PIONEER, DEAD.

Passed Away This Morning at Her Home in Monmouth—Other Mortuary Matters Today.

Mrs. Samuel Kunkle, an old pioneer of Adams county, died this morning at 2 o'clock at her home in Monmouth, Ind., a town on the Grand Rapids and Indiana, about two miles north of Decatur, where she has lived with her husband for the past fifty years or more. She was seventy-seven years old and her death was due to the infirmities of age.

She was the oldest member of the Durwin family, one of the most closely connected with the early settlement of Adams county.

Of her Fort Wayne relatives C. J. Winch is a brother-in-law and his immediate family being nieces and nephews. Dr. Miles F. Porter is also a nephew.

Her husband, Samuel Kunkle, who is eighty-three years old, and four children survive her—R. S. Peterson, Decatur, Ind.; Mrs. E. K. Bell, Decatur, Ind.; Mrs. A. L. DeVilbiss, Lancaster, O., and Calvin D. Kunkle of Monmouth, Ind.

Funeral services will be held at the house next Sunday morning.

WISCHMEIER.

Mrs. Henry Wischmeier, residing at Bingen, Adams county, died on Tuesday from a complication of diseases, at the age of 60 years. Surviving are the husband and eleven children. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. William Moellering and Mrs. Heitkamp, of this city.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon from the residence in Bingen.

MOB LYNCHES NEGRO RAPIST

Nicholasville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Tom Brown, a negro under arrest on the charge of having assaulted Miss Emma Powell yesterday, was hanged in the court house yard today by a mob. Early today a mob surrounded the jail where Brown was confined and demanded the prisoner. The mob was finally placated by the statement from the officers that the prisoner would be taken before Miss Powell for identification. The officers were permitted to take the prisoner to the young woman's home, where she at once identified him.

On the way back to the jail the mob suddenly closed in and secured the prisoner. Hurrying him to the court house yard he was soon dangling from a limb of a tree.

Miss Emma Powell is 16 years old and was on her way home from school when the negro sprang out from the roadside and seized her. She reached home finally in a dazed condition and officers later captured the negro. A mob made an unsuccessful attempt to storm the jail last night.

DEFENDANT ACQUITTED.

In the disbarment proceedings of Rogers vs. Robbins, venued here from Starke county, Judge O'Rourke this afternoon rendered a decision acquitting the defendant of all the seven counts preferred against him. Subsequently he dismissed the case of Robbins vs. Rogers for damages.

EVERY PRECAUTION TAKEN FOR HIS SAFETY.

GUEST LIST IS SCANNED NO DOUBTFUL PERSON TO BE AT LAUNCHING.

WATCHFUL OF ANARCHISTS DETECTIVES OF ALL NATIONS TO BE PRESENT.

New York, Feb. 6.—Wallace W. Downey, member of the firm which is building Emperor William's yacht, has returned from a conference with President Roosevelt. The president is said to have asked particularly about the arrangements as to the crowds at the launching. He is said to have told Mr. Downey that Prince Henry is to be the guest of the nation and that the nation will be responsible for his safety. For that reason great care is imperative in editing the list of guests and seeing that no one not vouched for by a responsible person shall be permitted to attend. Mr. Downey has had charge of all the arrangements for the launching and all the invitations are to be sent from his office. Lists are to be furnished him by the German embassy, the president and Mayor Low. In addition to the names on these lists the firm will invite a number of friends and fellow shipbuilders. It was to prevent a too wide distribution of courtesies that the authorities have been careful to restrict the number of invited guests. Every name must be vised by the secret service bureau at Washington. No name not vouched for in the most satisfactory manner will be allowed to remain on the list.

The New York naval militia, 500 strong, will act as special guard for the prince and the president at the launching. It will be formed in a double line from the pier on which the prince, President Roosevelt and the launching party will land, and through the line the party will march to the launching stage to be erected under the bow of the Motor.

A large force of secret service men from Washington, central office men and policemen in uniform will also be on duty. A squad of secret service men representing all foreign nations also will be present to see that no crank is permitted to get near the prince. These latter officials, the leading men in their line of work in the greatest European capitals, will, it is stated, accompany the prince on his tour of the country.

PILLERS DIVORCE CASE.

About the warmest proposition in the way of a divorce trial heard of recently in this county is that of Mary vs. W. E. Pillers today being heard before Judge Branyan, of Huntington, sitting as special judge in the superior court. There are complaints and cross-complaints, all alleging things that if true would tend to disrupt a happy home, and the evidence is being listened to with wrapt attention by an audience that completely packs the large court room. Mrs. Pillers was put on the stand at 10:30 this morning and was dismissed at 2:30.

With all respect to all other witnesses that have appeared before an Allen county bar or court, Mrs. Pillers is in the estimation of the court artist of The Sentinel entitled to a seat in the first row. Her evidence was all the time clear, concise and often incisive, and while many embarrassing questions were asked of her she never faltered. Judge Branyan overruled many objections, holding that while the evidence admitted might affect a jury, he did not believe it would affect the court and he wanted to hear all the particulars.

IT all depends upon what you want in a soap. If you require simply a dirt remover, almost any soap will do. But if you care at all about the thing which is to be washed, you must think twice before you act. Any soap will clean linens and muslins, but Ivory Soap leaves them as white as snow. Any soap will clean sheets and table cloths, but Ivory Soap leaves no coarse, strong odor. Try it once!

Miss Clara Sherbundy has returned home from Peru, after a visit with friends in the city.

The annual masquerade ball of the Fort Wayne Turn Verein will be given this evening.

Major Roy Van Camp and Major Stevens, of Indianapolis, inspected battery B last evening.

Mrs. James Elliot, of Cleveland O., has returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bittler.

Sam Wolf will entertain the clerks of his store at cards in the Wayne club Friday night, in celebration of his approaching marriage.

The local lodges of the Knights of Pythias have received invitations to attend the district meeting in Huntington on the 20th, and will charter a special car on the interurban for the trip.

Del Reed, who was one of the chief witnesses in the Dunn murder trial has taken a position at the Olds Wagon works. Reed was employed by Dunn as a hired man when the crime was supposed to have been committed last July.

Huntington Democrat: "Ric Shoff, a Fort Wayne traveling man, started on a trip through the southern and eastern parts of the county Tuesday, but was forced to abandon the trip until more moderate weather."

Zion's Walther league gave an entertainment last evening in Zion's school hall and some time before the performance began the "standing room only" card was put out. The program consisted of musical numbers and dialogues and the audience was highly appreciative. The society will probably repeat the entertainment some time in the near future.

The masquerade ball given at Randall hall last night under the auspices of the Highroller's club was a very successful affair, and one of the most orderly masquerades given in the city this year. The costumes were unique and while the crowd was not of the most select character, its behavior was commended by the police officer present, as being so good as to be unusual.

RACING ON THE SNOW.

Yesterday afternoon Frank Bogash with "Wayne King," Frank J. Gruber with "Red Elgin" and W. H. Fleming with "Electric King" had a series of pretty dashes on the snow on Washington boulevard west of Broadway. The course is straightaway about half a mile, and as the crossings are all guarded by policemen, the sport from 2:30 to 4 is usually quite exhilerating. Yesterday the trial for honors was confined to the three horses and drivers named, and five regular heats were raced and of these five, each of the three drivers claim two. They were all close and neither driver is prepared to say just exactly which heat he beat the other horse in, and so to settle the matter, the race will be run over this afternoon.

RECEIVER FOR GAS COMPANY.

Marion, Ind., Feb. 6.—Frank Gilchrist filed a suit in the circuit court yesterday for a receiver for the Citizens' Gas company, of Gas City. He alleges in his complaint that the company was incorporated in 1899 with a capital stock of $5,000, of which $4,775 has been paid. He says that the profits of the company have been so large that it has never been necessary to increase the stock or to call on the stockholders for an assessment and that the property of the company is valued at $5,000. He alleges that certain officers of the company have organized the Jonesboro Oil and Gas company and transferred the holdings of the Citizens' company without authority.

OFFICERS OF FORESTERS.

Valparaiso, Ind., Feb. 6.—The annual session of the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters of America yesterday afternoon elected the following officers:

High Chief Ranger—P. H. Hall, Crown Point.

Vice Chief—J. Hickey, North Vernon.

High Secretary—Joseph Young, Crown Point.

High Treasurer—Jacob Lowenstein, Valparaiso.

High Medical Examiner—Dr. P. G. Moore, Wabash.

New Members High Board of Directors—H. C. Batterman, Dyer, and F. J. Wiler, Hurlbut.

Gray?

Perhaps you like the idea of looking 25 or 30 years older than you are! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It completely restores the color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color it used to have. No use in looking old before your time.

"I am over sixty years of age and my hair is very handsome. People tell me I don't look nearly that old, because my hair is so dark and thick. You know I use Ayer's Hair Vigor."

Mrs. H. F. Borgeol, Phœnix, N. Y.

WOEBKING-VAN BUSKIRK.

Miss Minnie Van Buskirk, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Buskirk, was married last evening to Gustave C. Woebking, by Rev. D. T. Williams, of the South Congregational church. The bride's dress was of mode colored foulard. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, the bride's table being done in white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Woebking have gone to housekeeping at 50 Stophlet street.

THROCKMORTON-MONAHAN.

Miss Grace Monahan was united in marriage at Denver, Col., yesterday, to W. Bruce Throckmorton, of that city. The announcement will come as a great surprise to the bride's many friends in this city. Miss Monahan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Monahan and the groom was a former resident of this city.

MILK WAGON WRECKED.

A south bound Lewis street car, in charge of Motorman Donnelley and Conductor Butler, wrecked a Mondamin Meadows dairy wagon on Clinton street, between Washington and Jefferson streets, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. The milk wagon, driven by A. Stirling, turned on the car track to pass another vehicle and the car struck the front wheel of the wagon, breaking off the front axle and smashing the wagon body. A lamp in the milk wagon was overturned and set fire to the straw. Stirling was imprisoned in the vehicle owing to the fact that the door had been jammed, and the had some difficulty in getting out. The rig was damaged to the extent of about $25.

MAKES CHILDREN BRAINY.

Proof About Feeding.

It has been proved times without number that properly selected food will build up the brain. The testimony of a school teacher on this subject is good. The letter is long and only the important facts will be given.

"While I was teaching school in 1898, a little girl in the household where I lived was very fond of Grape-Nuts and would eat all she was allowed. I noticed that she was a remarkably bright pupil. There were five other children, all of one family, that were so marked in their work. They were really the brightest family I ever knew, so I questioned to find what they were using. They replied, 'Only Grape-Nuts.' I learned upon further inquiry that this was their chief diet for breakfast and discovered that their luncheon consisted generally of Grape-Nuts, with cream and a little fruit.

"I had suffered from dyspepsia, headaches and general debility greatly and, as I knew, my diet was not well selected, I took up Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and carried it to school for luncheon. I soon discovered a change in my condition and found that Grape-Nuts afforded more nourishment than bread, meat, eggs or anything that I could take in my basket. After luncheon I would feel very strong and bright for the afternoon's work, while before I had frequently been half ill.

"In the spring of 1900 I went to college, rented a room and boarded myself, subsisting largely on Grape-Nuts, and I can not speak too highly of the food as a brain nourisher. At the end of a year's schooling I obtained a position in one of the ward schools in this, a college town, and am well and happy.

"The wife of the college principal tells me that there is no food that agrees with her as well as Grape-Nuts and that testimony was repeated by a lady friend in my own home." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

GOBBLED BY THE TRUST.

R. K. Dorr, who for fifteen years has been a traveling salesman for the Spalding & Merrick tobacco company, of Chicago, is no longer connected with that firm. Wednesday he received notice that the company had sold out to the Continental Tobacco company, which now practically controls the smoking and fine cut tobacco industry, that the services of the thirty traveling men of the company would be no longer required, the trust having a system of their own whereby one man does the work of twenty. Mr. Dorr is one of the best known traveling salesmen in the country and has numerous offers to go on the road for other concerns.

CURES BLOOD POISON, CANCER, ULCERS, ECZEMA, ETC. TREATMENT FREE.

If you have offensive pimples or eruptions, ulcers on any part of the body, aching bones or joints, falling hair, mucous patches, swollen glands, sore lips, eating, festering sores, sharp, gnawing pains, then you suffer from serious blood poison or the beginnings of deadly cancer. It is a dangerous condition, but you may be permanently cured by Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) made especially to cure the worst blood diseases. It heals every sore or ulcer, stops all aches and pains and reduces all swellings. Botanic Blood Balm cures all malignant blood troubles, such as eczema, scabs and scales, pimples, running sores, carbuncles, scrofula, etc. Especially advised for all obstinate cases that have reached the second or third stage. Sold by Ranke & Nussbaum, 88 Calhoun St. eod-w.

JUDGE O. J. LOTZ DEAD.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 6.—Hon. Orlando J. Lotz, aged 52 years, died last evening of typhoid fever. He was elected to the appellate court bench in Indiana, served as the only democrat ever elected to the Delaware county circuit bench and was the opponent of Congressman Cromer at his first election, cutting Mr. Cromer's anticipated majority one-half. His father has been in the government offices in Washington for thirty years.

A LEGACY OF THE GRIP

Is often a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Dreier & Bro.

A meeting of the Steadfast club of the Y. W. C. A. will be held this evening in the Y. W. C. A. parlors.

A NIGHT ALARM.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the brassy cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My three-year-old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar; the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

MONDAY.

IT all depends upon what you want in a soap. If you require simply a dirt remover, almost any soap will do. But if you care at all about the thing which is to be washed, you must think twice before you act. Any soap will clean linens and muslins, but Ivory Soap leaves them as white as snow. Any soap will clean sheets and table cloths, but Ivory Soap leaves no coarse, strong odor. Try it once!

INDIAN WILL AID SCIENCE.

Berkeley, Cal., Feb. 6.—A young chief of the Yuki tribe of Indians is on his way from Mendocino county to the University of California in order to help the ethnologists to record the manners, customs and beliefs of his people. He is a full-blooded Yuki, but speaks and writes English fluently. At one time the Yukis were the fiercest Indians in California. The language of the tribe will be recorded and preserved in the university by means of the phonograph.

The annual masquerade ball of the Fort Wayne Turn Verein will be given this evening.

Major Roy Van Camp and Major Stevens, of Indianapolis, inspected battery B last evening.

Mrs. James Elliot, of Cleveland O., has returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bittler.

Sam Wolf will entertain the clerks of his store at cards in the Wayne club Friday night, in celebration of his approaching marriage.

The local lodges of the Knights of Pythias have received invitations to attend the district meeting in Huntington on the 20th, and will charter a special car on the interurban for the trip.

Del Reed, who was one of the chief witnesses in the Dunn murder trial, has taken a position at the Olds Wagon works. Reed was employed by Dunn as a hired man when the crime was supposed to have been committed last July.

Huntington Democrat: "Rie Shoff, a Fort Wayne traveling man, started on a trip through the southern and eastern parts of the county Tuesday, but was forced to abandon the trip until more moderate weather."

Zion's Walther league gave an entertainment last evening in Zion's school hall and some time before the performance began the "standing room only" card was put out. The program consisted of musical numbers and dialogues and the audience was highly appreciative. The society will probably repeat the entertainment some time in the near future.

The masquerade ball given at Randall hall last night under the auspices of the Highroller's club was a very successful affair, and one of the most orderly masquerades given in the city this year. The costumes were unique and while the crowd was not of the most select character, its behavior was commended by the police officer present, as being so good as to be unusual.

RACING ON THE SNOW.

Yesterday afternoon Frank Bogash with "Wayne King," Frank J. Gruber with "Red Elgin" and W. H. Fleming with "Electric King" had a series of pretty dashes on the snow on Washington boulevard west of Broadway. The course is straightaway about half a mile, and as the crossings are all guarded by policemen, the sport from 2:30 to 4 is usually quite exhilerating. Yesterday the trial for honors was confined to the three horses and drivers named, and five regular heats were raced and of these five, each of the three drivers claim two. They were all close and neither driver is prepared to say just exactly which heat he beat the other horse in, and so to settle the matter, the race will be run over this afternoon.

RECEIVER FOR GAS COMPANY.

Marion, Ind., Feb. 6.—Frank Gilchrist filed a suit in the circuit court yesterday for a receiver for the Citizens' Gas company, of Gas City. He alleges in his complaint that the company was incorporated in 1899 with a capital stock of $5,000, of which $4,775 has been paid. He says that the profits of the company have been so large that it has never been necessary to increase the stock or to call on the stockholders for an assessment and that the property of the company is valued at $5,000. He alleges that certain officers of the company have organized the Jonesboro Oil and Gas company and transferred the holdings of the Citizens' company without authority.

OFFICERS OF FORESTERS.

Valparaiso, Ind., Feb. 6.—The annual session of the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters of America yesterday afternoon elected the following officers:

High Chief Ranger—P. H. Hall, Crown Point.

Vice Chief—J. Hickey, North Vernon.

High Secretary—Joseph Young, Crown Point.

High Treasurer—Jacob Lowenstein, Valparaiso.

High Medical Examiner—Dr. P. G. Moore, Wabash.

New Members High Board of Directors—H. C. Batterman, Dyer, and F. J. Wiler, Hurlbut.

Gray?

Perhaps you like the idea of looking 25 or 30 years older than you are! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It completely restores the color to gray hair, all the dark, rich color it used to have. No use in looking old before your time.

"I am over sixty years of age and my hair is very handsome. People tell me I don't look nearly that old, because my hair is so dark and thick. You know I use Ayer's Hair Vigor."

WOEBKING-VAN BUSKIRK.

Miss Minnie Van Buskirk, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Buskirk, was married last evening to Gustave C. Woebking, by Rev. D. T. Williams, of the South Congregational church. The bride's dress was of mode colored foulard. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, the bride's table being done in white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Woebking have gone to housekeeping at 50 Stophlet street.

THROCKMORTON-MONAHAN.

Miss Grace Monahan was united in marriage at Denver, Col., yesterday, to W. Bruce Throckmorton, of that city. The announcement will come as a great surprise to the bride's many friends in this city. Miss Monahan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Monahan and the groom was a former resident of this city.

MILK WAGON WRECKED.

A south bound Lewis street car, in charge of Motorman Donnelley and Conductor Butler, wrecked a Mondamin Meadows dairy wagon on Clinton street, between Washington and Jefferson streets, shortly after 7 o'clock this morning. The milk wagon, driven by A. Stirling, turned on the car track to pass another vehicle and the car struck the front wheel of the wagon, breaking off the front axle and smashing the wagon body. A lamp in the milk wagon was overturned and set fire to the straw. Stirling was imprisoned in the vehicle owing to the fact that the door had been jammed, and the had some difficulty in getting out. The rig was damaged to the extent of about $25.

MAKES CHILDREN BRAINY.

Proof About Feeding.

It has been proved times without number that properly selected food will build up the brain. The testimony of a school teacher on this subject is good. The letter is long and only the important facts will be given.

"While I was teaching school in 1898, a little girl in the household where I lived was very fond of Grape-Nuts and would eat all she was allowed. I noticed that she was a remarkably bright pupil. There were five other children, all of one family, that were so marked in their work. They were really the brightest family I ever knew, so I questioned to find what they were using. They replied, 'Only Grape-Nuts.' I learned upon further inquiry that this was their chief diet for breakfast and discovered that their luncheon consisted generally of Grape-Nuts, with cream and a little fruit.

"I had suffered from dyspepsia, headaches and general debility greatly and, as I knew, my diet was not well selected, I took up Grape-Nuts Breakfast Food and carried it to school for luncheon. I soon discovered a change in my condition and found that Grape-Nuts afforded more nourishment than bread, meat, eggs or anything that I could take in my basket. After luncheon I would feel very strong and bright for the afternoon's work, while before I had frequently been half ill.

"In the spring of 1900 I went to college, rented a room and boarded myself, subsisting largely on Grape-Nuts, and I can not speak too highly of the food as a brain nourisher. At the end of a year's schooling I obtained a position in one of the ward schools in this, a college town, and am well and happy.

"The wife of the college principal tells me that there is no food that agrees with her as well as Grape-Nuts and that testimony was repeated by a lady friend in my own home." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

GOBBLED BY THE TRUST.

E. K. Dorr, who for fifteen years has been a traveling salesman for the Spalding & Merrick tobacco company, of Chicago, is no longer connected with that firm. Wednesday he received notice that the company had sold out to the Continental Tobacco company, which now practically controls the smoking and fine cut tobacco industry, that the services of the thirty traveling men of the company would be no longer required, the trust having a system of their own whereby one man does the work of twenty. Mr. Dorr is one of the best known traveling salesmen in the country and has numerous offers to go on the road for other concerns.

JUDGE O. J. LOTZ DEAD.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 6.—Hon. Orlando J. Lotz, aged 52 years, died last evening of typhoid fever. He was elected to the appellate court bench in Indiana, served as the only democrat ever elected to the Delaware county circuit bench and was the opponent of Congressman Cromer at his first election, cutting Mr. Cromer's anticipated majority one-half. His father has been in the government offices in Washington for thirty years.

A LEGACY OF THE GRIP

Is often a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Dreier & Bro.

A meeting of the Steadfast club of the Y. W. C. A. will be held this evening in the Y. W. C. A. parlors.

A NIGHT ALARM.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the brassy cough of croup, which sounds like the children's death knell and it means death unless something is done quickly. Foley's Honey and Tar never fails to give instant relief and quickly cures the worst forms of croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My three-year-old girl had a severe case of croup; the doctor said she could not live. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar; the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, will not die unsung, no matter what happens to the merger. His literature on the matter accumulates.

It was Codlin and not Short who was our friend during the critical days when Europe wanted to stick her finger in our war pie. The trouble is that the two are quarreling as to which is which.

Editor E. O. Rose, of the Angola Magnet, has been appointed postmaster of Angola. Captain Rose was until a few months ago deputy United States marshal for Indiana and was a most capable officer. He will not be blamed for resigning that onerous job to assume the better-paying and lighter duties of the postmastership of Angola. He has many friends in Fort Wayne who will congratulate him.

General Corbin is very prompt with a denial that any horse, mule or other animal expert of the war department was placed at the service of the British army agents who were purchasing horses and mules in this country for use in South Africa. Meanwhile, Major Arthur Lee, who made the disclosure in the house of commons, has taken pains to reiterate his statement and emphasize the truth of it. He says he cannot disclose the identity of the official who made tender of the service and has purposely disguised him in the indefinite title of "chief horse expert of the United States army." It appears to be up to congress to investigate such violation of the laws of neutrality.

The announcement of the sudden death of John M. Spann, of Indianapolis, was a great shock to his many friends in Fort Wayne. Though a citizen of the capital city, Mr. Spann seemed like a resident of Fort Wayne, for he came here once each month for seven years to attend meetings of the board of trustees for the state home, of which board he was president at the time of his death. The editor of this paper was associated with him for almost six years as a member of the board and found him not only to be a man of the loftiest personal integrity, but a man whose heart was large with love and sympathy and pity for the hapless inmates of the institution over which he exercised an official care. The state has lost a truly patriotic and conscientious citizen, who always tried to guide his footsteps by what he believed to be the right.

WOULD ANNEX CUBA.

Congressman Newlands, of Nevada, has introduced a joint resolution providing for the annexation of Cuba to the United States, first as a territory and finally as a state. The resolution also provides for a reduction of 25 per cent of duty on the present crop of Cuban sugar. That part of the resolution relating to annexation says:

"That in the meantime the republic of Cuba is invited to become a part of the United States of America, and her people to become citizens of the United States, with the assurance that Cuba will be entitled at first to a territorial form of government under the constitution and laws of the United States, with a delegate in congress to represent her people, and that ultimate statehood will be granted when, in the judgment of the congress, it is advisable to admit Cuba, including such other West India islands belonging to the United States as may be deemed advisable, as a single state in the union, to be called the state of Cuba."

That annexation would fulfill the aspirations of a large part of the more intelligent class of Cubans cannot be doubted any more than it may be gainsaid it would be fulfillment of a long-cherished dream of the United States. But Cuba's full and free consent to annexation must be secured. To suppress the voice of the majority to obtain annexation would be tyrannical conquest. It is to be taken into consideration that the classes who fought Spain most desperately are not of the most outspoken annexationists. Perhaps, however, all Cubans view the question in another light than they did a year or two ago.

NOT THE SAME DANIELS.

Denver, Col., Feb. 6.—The police authorities of Cheyenne, Wyo., do not believe that Benjamin Daniels, who served three and one-half years in the Wyoming penitentiary, charged with stealing government property from Camp Carlin and Fort Russell in 1879, is the same person recently appointed by President Roosevelt to the marshalship of Arizona, the confirmation of which appointment is withheld by the senate pending investigation. The last heard of Daniels was from New Mexico, where he was in the ranch business. This was within the last few years. This Daniels had no middle initial, whereas the Arizona man is reported as having one. Friends of the Arizona Daniels living in Cripple Creek, who have known him for over twenty years, deny emphatically that he has any prison record.

Miss Olga Troller, of Sheboygan, Wis., is the guest of friends in the city for a few days.

DR. JOSEPH ENK'S HOMEOPATHIC PREPARATION NUMBER 21

PERMANENTLY CURES

no matter in what part of the body it is located. This remedy removes the cause by feeding the impoverished nerves, going direct to the spot where it is needed. The cure is therefore immediate and permanent, and there is no stupefaction or paralysis of the nerves necessary to lull the pain. It never fails in true neuralgia, and the sharper and more severe the attack the quicker it acts. No opium, phenacetine, cocaine, caffeine, or opiates, sedatives or anodynes are used in any of the Enk Preparations. They are purely Homeopathic.

Henry Holzfaster, of Holzfaster Bros., saddlers, Union City, Ind., was cured of a remarkable case of periodic neuralgia by Enk Preparation No. 21. He always had two attacks every year, coming at regular periods and lasting ten days. The only relief he had been able to get was from the use of morphine, and that was insufficient at the height of the attack. Preparation No. 21 relieved with the first dose and permanently cured.

ELEVEN ARE DEAD

FRIGHTFUL RESULT OF A GAS EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO.

WHOLE FAMILY WIPED OUT

MEAT SHOP AND FLAT BLOWN TO CRUMBLING RUINS.

THE FORCE WAS TERRIFIC

ACCUMULATION OF GAS IS THOUGHT THE CAUSE.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—It is believed that eleven is the correct number of people who lost their lives by the explosion of gas in the Trostel butcher shop at 396 Twenty-second street last night. The bodies, charred past human semblance in the majority of cases, lay at a near-by morgue today, while firemen, assisted by laborers, still dug in the ruins on the bare possibility that more bodies might be under the debris. Fire Chief Musham today declared his belief that the explosion was that of a pocket of gas. A force of laborers was put to work at daybreak tearing up and repairing the gas pipes which figure in the explosions which followed that in the butcher shop. When the coroner learned of it he ordered the work stopped. "I want no changes in present conditions made, unless necessary, until I have investigated fully to discover if negligence was in any way responsible for the loss of life," said he.

LIST OF THE DEAD.

The following is believed to be a correct list of the dead:

Otto Trostel, owner of the butcher shop.

Augusta Trostel, wife of the above.

Otto Trostel, jr., aged 11 years.

Anna Trostel, aged 9 years.

Lena Trostel, aged 7 years.

Minnie Trostel, aged 6 years.

Baby Trostel, aged 2 years.

Fred Trostel, nephew of Otto Trostel.

Sophia Kneipp, niece of Mrs. Trostel.

Mary Rosenthal, aged 22 years; a neighbor visiting shop.

"Otto," an employe; last name not known.

The number injured ranges probably between fifty and one hundred, none of them dangerously. The names of the larger number cannot be ascertained as they left the vicinity of the explosion before the excitement subsided.

The experts of the People's Gas company are investigating the cause and are as yet uncertain. They think someone was thawing out a pipe and that the explosion resulted. The city fire marshal is likewise uncertain as to the first cause.

A GRAPHIC STORY.

The most graphic story of the accident was told by J. Pauly, of 66 Twenty-second place, who stood across the street when the building went up.

"The first thing I knew," he said, "I was blown against a telegraph pole. I was facing the market, and it seemed that the whole building rose up in the air at once and then collapsed into the cellar, a heap of ruins. I ran across the street, and as I crossed the car tracks I could hear the cries of the people imprisoned in the wreckage. Almost immediately the flames burst out all over the place, and it seemed that everything was on fire at once.

"Then I caught sight of a man crawling out from the basement. He did not seem to be badly hurt and called for help. I recognized him as the sausage maker, Trostel, had hired a few days before. I do not know what his name is. A man who ran up jumped down to help him and between us we got him to the street. He was able to walk and went away at once.

"The first explosion in the building disconnected the gas mains and they caught fire at once. The fire seemed to follow the pipes and five minutes later the manhole west in Archer avenue blew up with a report almost as loud as the first. The manhole to the east followed in a few minutes.

"We could hear the cries in the basement growing fainter, and we had to allow the sufferers to die without doing anything to help them."

ANOTHER STORY.

J. C. Kleiner, proprietor of the drug store at Archer avenue and Twenty-second street, was a witness to the explosion. He says that no one came from the butcher shop after the shock.

"I was standing in the front of my store when the explosion occurred," said Mr. Kleiner. "I was just looking down Twenty-second street when the building trembled. I saw the entire front of the butcher shop fly out into the street, and instantly there was a flash of flame. I turned to the telephone and called up several doctors and told them of the disaster. All of them responded.

"As I turned to look down the street again I heard the fire department coming. Then the manholes began to explode and one by one the caps were blown high in the air. The force of the explosion was so great that the windows in street cars were shattered.

"I do not believe a person in the butcher shop or the flat above escaped."

On Monday Otto Trostel insured his life for $5,000 making his wife the beneficiary. Yesterday Mrs. Trostel called on the insurance agent and asked if the oldest two children could be insured. She said she had a presentiment that something would happen. The agent was instructed to write policies of $2,000 each.

RACING O'ER THE SNOW ON WASHINGTON BOULEVARD.

Jingle bells.
The music swells,
The street is smooth and clear,
The horses keyed
To furious speed;
But, dear heart, never fear.

That handsome black
Led all the pack,
Till this old mare of mine
Began to jump
And then to hump;
Oh! don't she cut a shine!

He's fall behind
I shouldn't mind;
Oh! dear, but he is slow.
It's glorious fun,
This breakneck fun
A-racing o'er the snow.

WAS SHOT BY TRESSPASSERS

HAMILTON COUNTY FARMER ATTACKED BY HUNTERS.

George McDowell Fired Upon by Men He Ordered to Vacate the Premises.

Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 6.—George McDowell, aged 35 years, was shot by trespassers on the W. V. Rooker farm, south of Noblesville while trying to eject the men from the premises. Without warning one of the three men levelled his shotgun and fired at McDowell, shattering his left arm so badly that amputation was necessary to save McDowell's life. Hunters had been committing depredations on the farm and McDowell, who had been instructed by W. V. Rooker, of 2526 Broadway, Indianapolis, to keep hunters off the farm, met three men believed to be residents of Noblesville, and ordered them to leave the place. He was unarmed, and when he approached the men one of them deliberately shot him. The three men escaped. A warrant has been issued for Harry Bradoff, of this city, charging him with the shooting. It is believed all the men concerned in the shooting are known by the officers, but as yet no arrests have been made. Mr. Rooker arrived here soon after the shooting, and in company with two physicians, hastened to the McDowell home, where it was found necessary to amputate McDowell's arm. It is not believed McDowell's wound will prove fatal.

A FREE EXCURSION.

The business men of Huntington recently distributed about 2,000 free tickets to residents along the line of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern road west of and including Aboite, and today many hundreds of people took advantage of the occasion and enjoyed a free ride to the Lime City. Nearly every car was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the streets of Huntington presented a very animated appearance all day.

HAVE A SOCIAL EVENING.

Tonight the newly organized young men's society of the First Presbyterian church will have its first social evening and every young man, whether a member or an attendant of the First church, is invited to attend. The "feed" will be prepared by the young men and some interesting dishes are promised. The Apollo quartet will assist in the musicale which will follow the refreshments.

Winter coughs are apt to result in consumption if neglected. They can be soon broken up by using Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

Dr. G. M. Leslie was called to Pennsylvania Tuesday to perform an operation.

OPPOSED BY TILLMAN.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, made a speech in the senate today in opposition to the claim of Indiana for $700,000 as interest on war bonds, which is now tacked on the urgency deficiency bill. He says that his state and many other southern states were patriotic during the war of 1812, the Mexican war and the late Spanish-American war, but they had never been able to secure a settlement of any of their claims. The bill went over.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Karns, of Rockford, Ill., are visiting friends in the city.

AN HONEST DOCTOR

The success of Dr. Tucker as a specialist consists in his knowing how to treat all Private and Chronic Diseases better than any other doctor in this state, and it is this knowledge that has given him his immense practice. Most of the unhappiness, sorrow, misery and suffering in this world comes from being sick. If you are sick call on DR. TUCKER, AT THE INDIANA MEDICAL INSTITUTE, NO. 10 WEST WAYNE STREET.

MISS BONNIE DELANO

A Chicago Society Lady, in a Letter to Mrs. Pinkham says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Of all the grateful daughters to whom you have given health and life, none are more glad than I.

"My home and my life was happy

MISS BONNIE DELANO.

until illness came upon me three years ago. I first noticed it by being irregular and having very painful and scanty menstruation; gradually my general health failed; I could not enjoy my meals; I became languid and nervous, with griping pains frequently in the groins.

"I advised with our family physician who prescribed without any improvement. One day he said,—'Try Lydia Pinkham's Remedies.' I did, thank God; the next month I was better, and it gradually built me up until in four months I was cured. This is nearly a year ago and I have not had a pain or ache since."—BONNIE DELANO, 3248 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Trustworthy proof is abundant that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves thousands of young women from dangers resulting from organic irregularity, suppression or retention of the menses, ovarian or womb troubles. Refuse substitutes.

THE POISE

Of a woman in perfect health attracts the eye at once. Such a woman is all too rarely seen. The most of women bear scars of suffering on their faces which no smiles can hide, and often in their very carriage betray the womanly weakness which oppresses them.

There can be no perfect health for the woman who suffers from disease of the delicate womanly organism. Her general health is so intimately related to the local health of the womanly organs that these must be cured before the general health can be established.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures womanly disorders and diseases; brightens the dull eye, rounds out the hollow cheek and gives strength for wifely duties and maternal cares.

"My health is the best now that it has been for four years," writes Mrs. Phebe Morris, of Ira, Cayuga Co., N. Y., Box 52. "I have taken but two bottles of your medicine, 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have done me more good than all that I have ever taken before. I couldn't do my work only about half the time, and now I can work all the time for a family of four. Before I took your medicines I was sick in bed nearly half the time. My advice to all who are troubled with female weakness is to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'—the most wonderful medicines in the world."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mid-Winter Suggestions.

A hot-water bag is good for various little aches and pains, and is most excellent for cold feet. The 2-qt. size is most popular—$1.00.

Don't use sticky, greasy creams for chapped hands and lips. Almond Cream is quickly absorbed, and it does the work. Price, 25 cents.

That cough is beginning to trouble you, is it? Syrup of White Pine and Tar Compound has a long list of admirers. It goes to the spot and quickly gives relief. 25 cts.

Some of our customers tell us that they have never found as good a cure for headache as Dr. Brooks' powders. Four powders in a package—10c.

Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, will not die unsung, no matter what happens to the merger. His literature on the matter accumulates.

It was Codlin and not Short who was our friend during the critical days when Europe wanted to stick her finger in our war pie. The trouble is that the two are quarreling as to which is which.

Editor E. O. Rose, of the Angola Magnet, has been appointed postmaster of Angola. Captain Rose was until a few months ago deputy United States marshal for Indiana and was a most capable officer. He will not be blamed for resigning that onerous job to assume the better-paying and lighter duties of the postmastership of Angola. He has many friends in Fort Wayne who will congratulate him.

General Corbin is very prompt with a denial that any horse, mule or other animal expert of the war department was placed at the service of the British army agents who were purchasing horses and mules in this country for use in South Africa. Meanwhile, Major Arthur Lee, who made the disclosure in the house of commons, has taken pains to reiterate his statement and emphasize the truth of it. He says he cannot disclose the identity of the official who made tender of the service and has purposely disguised him in the indefinite title of "chief horse expert of the United States army." It appears to be up to congress to investigate such violation of the laws of neutrality.

The announcement of the sudden death of John M. Spann, of Indianapolis, was a great shock to his many friends in Fort Wayne. Though a citizen of the capital city, Mr. Spann seemed like a resident of Fort Wayne, for he came here once each month for seven years to attend meetings of the board of trustees for the state home, of which board he was president at the time of his death. The editor of this paper was associated with him for almost six years as a member of the board and found him not only to be a man of the loftiest personal integrity, but a man whose heart was large with love and sympathy and pity for the hapless inmates of the institution over which he exercised an official care. The state has lost a truly patriotic and conscientious citizen, who always tried to guide his footsteps by what he believed to be the right.

WOULD ANNEX CUBA.

Congressman Nowlands, of Nevada, has introduced a joint resolution providing for the annexation of Cuba to the United States, first as a territory and finally as a state. The resolution also provides for a reduction of 25 per cent of duty on the present crop of Cuban sugar. That part of the resolution relating to annexation says:

"That in the meantime the republic of Cuba is invited to become a part of the United States of America, and her people to become citizens of the United States, with the assurance that Cuba will be entitled at first to a territorial form of government under the constitution and laws of the United States, with a delegate in congress to represent her people, and that ultimate statehood will be granted when, in the judgment of the congress, it is advisable to admit Cuba, including such other West India islands belonging to the United States as may be deemed advisable, as a single state in the union, to be called the state of Cuba."

That annexation would fulfill the aspirations of a large part of the more intelligent class of Cubans cannot be doubted any more than it may be guessed it would be fulfillment of a long-cherished dream of the United States. But Cuba's full and free consent to annexation must be secured. To suppress the voice of the majority to obtain annexation would be tyrannical conquest. It is to be taken into consideration that the classes who fought Spain most desperately are not of the most outspoken annexationists. Perhaps, however, all Cubans view the question in another light than they did a year or two ago.

NOT THE SAME DANIELS.

Denver, Col., Feb. 6.—The police authorities of Cheyenne, Wyo., do not believe that Benjamin Daniels, who served three and one-half years in the Wyoming penitentiary, charged with stealing government property from Camp Carlin and Fort Russell in 1879, is the same person recently appointed by President Roosevelt to the marshalship of Arizona, the confirmation of which appointment is withheld by the senate pending investigation. The last heard of Daniels was from New Mexico, where he was in the ranch business. This was within the last few years. This Daniels had no middle initial, whereas the Arizona man is reported as having one. Friends of the Arizona Daniels living in Cripple Creek, who have known him for over twenty years, deny emphatically that he has any prison record.

Miss Olga Troller, of Sheboygan Wis., is the guest of friends in the city for a few days.

ELEVEN ARE DEAD

FRIGHTFUL RESULT OF A GAS EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO.

WHOLE FAMILY WIPED OUT

MEAT SHOP AND FLAT BLOWN TO CRUMBLING RUINS.

THE FORCE WAS TERRIFIC

ACCUMULATION OF GAS IS THOUGHT THE CAUSE.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—It is believed that eleven is the correct number of people who lost their lives by the explosion of gas in the Trostel butcher shop at 396 Twenty-second street last night. The bodies, charred past human semblance in the majority of cases, lay at a near-by morgue today, while firemen, assisted by laborers, still dug in the ruins on the bare possibility that more bodies might be under the debris. Fire Chief Musham today declared his belief that the explosion was that of a pocket of gas. A force of laborers was put to work at daybreak tearing up and repairing the gas pipes which figure in the explosions which followed that in the butcher shop. When the coroner learned of it he ordered the work stopped. "I want no changes in present conditions made, unless necessary, until I have investigated fully to discover if negligence was in any way responsible for the loss of life," said he.

LIST OF THE DEAD.

The following is believed to be a correct list of the dead:

Otto Trostel, owner of the butcher shop.

Augusta Trostel, wife of the above.

Otto Trostel, jr., aged 11 years.

Anna Trostel, aged 9 years.

Lena Trostel, aged 7 years.

Minnie Trostel, aged 6 years.

Baby Trostel, aged 2 years.

Fred Trostel, nephew of Otto Trostel.

Sophia Knipp, niece of Mrs. Trostel.

Mary Rosenthal, aged 23 years; a neighbor visiting shop.

"Otto," an employe; last name not known.

The number injured ranges probably between fifty and one hundred, none of them dangerously. The names of the larger number cannot be ascertained as they left the vicinity of the explosion before the excitement subsided.

The experts of the People's Gas company are investigating the cause and are as yet uncertain. They think someone was thawing out a pipe and that the explosion resulted. The city fire marshal is likewise uncertain as to the first cause.

A GRAPHIC STORY.

The most graphic story of the accident was told by J. Pauly, of 65 Twenty-second place, who stood across the street when the building went up.

"The first thing I knew," he said, "I was blown against a telegraph pole. I was facing the market, and it seemed that the whole building went up in the air at once and then collapsed into the cellar, a heap of ruins. I ran across the street, and as I crossed the car tracks I could hear the cries of the people imprisoned in the wreckage. Almost immediately the flames burst out all over the place, and it seemed that everything was on fire at once.

"Then I caught sight of a man crawling out from the basement. He did not seem to be badly hurt and called for help. I recognized him as the sausage maker, Trostel, had hired a few days before. I do not know what his name is. A man who ran up jumped down to help him and between us we got him to the street. He was able to walk and went away at once.

"The first explosion in the building disconnected the gas mains and they caught fire at once. The fire seemed to follow the pipes and five minutes later the manhole west in Archer avenue blew up with a report almost as loud as the first. The manhole to the east followed in a few minutes.

"We could hear the cries in the basement growing fainter, and we had to allow the sufferers to die without doing anything to help them."

ANOTHER STORY.

J. C. Kleiner, proprietor of the drug store at Archer avenue and Twenty-second street, was a witness to the explosion. He says that no one came from the butcher shop after the shock.

"I was standing in the front of my store when the explosion occurred," said Mr. Kleiner. "I was just looking down Twenty-second street when the building trembled. I saw the entire front of the butcher shop fly out into the street, and instantly there was a flash of flame. I turned to the telephone and called up several doctors and told them of the disaster. All of them responded.

"As I turned to look down the street again I heard the fire department coming. Then the manholes began to explode and one by one the caps were blown high in the air. The force of the explosion was so great that the windows in street cars were shattered.

"I do not believe a person in the butcher shop or the flat above escaped."

On Monday Otto Trostel insured his life for $5,000 making his wife the beneficiary. Yesterday Mrs. Trostel called on the insurance agent and asked if the oldest two children could be insured. She said she had a presentiment that something would happen. The agent was instructed to write policies of $2,000 each.

WAS SHOT BY TRESSPASSERS

HAMILTON COUNTY FARMER ATTACKED BY HUNTERS.

George McDowell Fired Upon by Men He Ordered to Vacate the Premises.

Noblesville, Ind., Feb. 6.—George McDowell, aged 35 years, was shot by trespassers on the W. V. Rooker farm, south of Noblesville while trying to eject the men from the premises. Without warning one of the three men levelled his shotgun and fired at McDowell, shattering his left arm so badly that amputation was necessary to save McDowell's life. Hunters had been committing depredations on the farm and McDowell, who had been instructed by W. V. Rooker, of 2526 Broadway, Indianapolis, to keep hunters off the farm, met three men believed to be residents of Noblesville, and ordered them to leave the place. He was unarmed, and when he approached the men one of them deliberately shot him. The three men escaped. A warrant has been issued for Harry Bradoff, of this city, charging him with the shooting. It is believed all the men concerned in the shooting are known by the officers, but as yet no arrests have been made. Mr. Rooker arrived here soon after the shooting, and in company with two physicians, hastened to the McDowell home, where it was found necessary to amputate McDowell's arm. It is not believed McDowell's wound will prove fatal.

A FREE EXCURSION.

The business men of Huntington recently distributed about 2,000 free tickets to residents along the line of the Fort Wayne and Southwestern road west of and including Aboite, and today many hundreds of people took advantage of the occasion and enjoyed a free ride to the Lime City. Nearly every car was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the streets of Huntington presented a very animated appearance all day.

HAVE A SOCIAL EVENING.

Tonight the newly organized young men's society of the First Presbyterian church will have its first social evening and every young man, whether a member or an attendant of the First church, is invited to attend. The "feed" will be prepared by the young men and some interesting dishes are promised. The Apollo quartet will assist in the musicale which will follow the refreshments.

RACING O'ER THE SNOW ON WASHINGTON BOULEVARD.

Jingle bells,
The music swells,
The street is smooth and clear,
The horses keyed
To furious speed;
But, dear heart, never fear.

That handsome black
Led all the pack,
Till this old mare of mine
Began to jump
And then to bump;
Oh! don't she cut a shine!

He's fall behind
I shouldn't mind;
Oh! dear, but he is slow.
It's glorious fun,
This breakneck fun
A-racing o'er the snow.

OPPOSED BY TILLMAN.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, made a speech in the senate today in opposition to the claim of Indiana for $700,000 as interest on war bonds, which is now tacked on the urgency deficiency bill. He says that his state and many other southern states were patriotic during the war of 1812, the Mexican war and the late Spanish-American war, but they had never been able to secure a settlement of any of their claims. The bill went over.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Karns, of Rockford, Ill., are visiting friends in the city.

MISS BONNIE DELANO

A Chicago Society Lady, in a Letter to Mrs. Pinkham says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Of all the grateful daughters to whom you have given health and life, none are more glad than I.

"My home and my life was happy

MISS BONNIE DELANO.

until illness came upon me three years ago. I first noticed it by being irregular and having very painful and scanty menstruation; gradually my general health failed; I could not enjoy my meals; I became languid and nervous, with griping pains frequently in the groins.

"I advised with our family physician who prescribed without any improvement. One day he said,—'Try Lydia Pinkham's Remedies.' I did, thank God; the next month I was better, and it gradually built me up until in four months I was cured. This is nearly a year ago and I have not had a pain or ache since."—BONNIE DELANO, 3348 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

Trustworthy proof is abundant that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saves thousands of young women from dangers resulting from organic irregularity, suppression or retention of the menses, ovarian or womb troubles. Refuse substitutes.

THE POISE

Of a woman in perfect health attracts the eye at once. Such a woman is all too rarely seen. The most of women bear scars of suffering on their faces which no smiles can hide, and often in their very carriage betray the womanly weakness which oppresses them.

There can be no perfect health for the woman who suffers from disease of the delicate womanly organism. Her general health is so intimately related to the local health of the womanly organs that these must be cured before the general health can be established.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures womanly disorders and diseases; brightens the dull eye, rounds out the hollow cheek and gives strength for wifely duties and maternal cares.

"My health is the best now that it has been for four years," writes Mrs. Phebe Morris of Ira, Cayuga Co., N. Y., Box 45. "I have taken but two bottles of your medicine 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' These medicines have done me more good than all that I have ever taken before. I couldn't do my work only about half the time, and now I can work all the time for a family of four. Before I took your medicines I was sick in bed nearly half the time. My advice to all who are troubled with female weakness is to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery'—the most wonderful medicines in the world."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mid-Winter Suggestions.

A hot-water bag is good for various little aches and pains, and is most excellent for cold feet. The 2-qt. size is most popular—$1.00.

Don't use sticky, greasy creams for chapped hands and lips. Almond Cream is quickly absorbed, and it does the work. Price, 25 cents.

MOTHER'S FRIEND.

There is no reason in the world why every woman should not be pleasant to look upon. A famous woman once said: "There are no ugly women; there are only women who do not understand how to make themselves beautiful."

Mother's Friend is a valuable aid to any wife. It is a liniment for external application, and relieves all suffering due to pregnancy. Morning sickness is prevented if this remedy is rubbed into the skin throughout the whole period of pregnancy.

Women never get old or lose their shape from child-bearing if Mother's Friend is regularly applied. The child too, is beneficially influenced by its use, and usually health and vigor are characteristic of both mother and child at birth. BECOMES A BRIDE

MISS HELEN HAY NOW MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY.

CEREMONY IN WASHINGTON

ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT OF EVENTS AT CAPITAL.

NOTABLE GUESTS PRESENT

PRESENTS TO BRIDE WERE OF UNUSUAL RICHNESS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Helen Hay, eldest daughter of ex-Secretary of State John Hay, and Payne Whitney, of New York, son of ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, were married today at noon at the church of the Covenant. The wedding was the most notable social event of the season in Washington, being celebrated in the presence of the highest officials in the land, including the president and the cabinet, and of what is recognized as the best of New York and New England society. The Hay family has been in mourning since the death of Adelbert Hay, but for this one day the mourning was put aside and the wedding was celebrated with all the pomp and circumstances that would have characterized it otherwise.

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY, NEE MISS HAY.

For several days past the guests have been gathering and preparations have been making for the wedding. The groom's father, ex-Secretary William C. Whitney, came to Washington with a party of distinguished friends, including Sir Edward Colebrooke, C. T. Barney, Miss Barney and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Paget, while Payne Whitney, the bridegroom, had gathered about him at the Arlington a large number of his college chums and friends.

PRESENTS ARE RICH.

Presents almost without number have been pouring into the Hay home for the last fortnight; it is believed their number exceeds four hundred, many being articles of almost priceless worth. But it has not been possible, owing to the reluctance of the family, to obtain a complete list of these presents, though it is known that they include houses and lands, a yacht and jewels and articles of vertu and art without number.

The church where the ceremony was performed was elaborately and artistically decorated with flowers and greens. Back of the pulpit and before the organ, tall, graceful palms formed a great bower of dark green, and beneath, like a miniature Niagara great sprays of easter lilies trailed to the ground. Candelabrum, twice as tall as a man, stood at either corner of the pulpit platform, each bearing twelve lights. Down the center aisle was a beautiful conception, a bridal path made up of easter lilies attached to the pews on either side. The walls of the church were festooned with southern smilax, topped off with great masses of easter lilies, caught up by bows of wide white ribbon.

CHURCH WAS CROWDED.

The church was crowded. Its seating capacity is only six hundred, which promised badly for the one thousand persons invited. It was realized that official Washington could not be accommodated even in a small measure, so the invitations were limited to friends of the contracting families, the only exceptions being in the case of the diplomatic body. Even here it was not possible to include in the invitations the entire diplomatic list and the elect were the heads of legations and their ladies alone. So in the case of the United States congress, the persons invited were those who were on personal relations with the Hay and Whitney families.

The ushers were all bachelor friends of the bridegroom, namely, Henry Clews, jr., Frederick Kernochan, J. N. Waterbury, jr., Milton S. Barger, Gouveneur Morris, of New York; James N. Wadsworth, of Geneseo, N. Y.; Hugh D. Scott, of Philadelphia, and Maj. Charles L. McCawley, U. S. M. C., of Washington. Mr. Whitney's best man was Eugene Hale, jr., son of the senior senator from Maine.

BRIDE'S PRETTY MAIDS.

The bride was assisted by two maids, her sister, Alice Hay, and Dorothy Whitney, the 15-year-old sister of the bridegroom. They were prettily gowned in gray crepe de chene, made over white silk, and wore great picture hats of white felt, with long white ostrich plumes. The bride wore neither jewels nor lace, and her toilet was one of extreme simplicity, consisting of a gown of plain white satin, completed by a tulle veil caught in place by a coronet of orange blossoms.

A beautiful feature of the wedding was the musical program, which had been arranged by the Hay sisters and was rendered by Organist Harvey Murray. Four of the six numbers were selections from Wagner. The music was as follows: Pilgrim chorus, "The Evening Star," from Tannhauser; processional march of the master singers, the prize song from Die Meistersinger; wedding march by Dudley Buck, the swan song, Elsa entering the cathedral, introduction to third act and wedding music, Lohengrin; march from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream," Mendelssohn.

Half an hour before noon the church was well filled with guests, and as the hour of 12 approached not a seat was vacant. Admittance was by ticket only and the lines were rigidly drawn.

HAD PLACE OF HONOR.

President Roosevelt came early and was given the place of honor between the aisles in the first row of pews. He came with Mrs. Roosevelt and his daughter, Alice, and they preceded him as he came to the front of the church. On either side of the presidential party were the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom, and close behind were the members of the president's cabinet. The diplomatic corps were seated in the center of the church, the place of honor being held by Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador, with the ladies of his family. Minister Wu and his wife were prominent figures in the diplomatic body, which included the heads or charges of every one of the embassies and missions to Washington.

The organist was softly playing the prize song from Die Meistersinger as the hour of 12 struck. Immediately the soft notes gave way to the splendid refrain of the Lohengrin wedding march, and the bridal party entered the church and moved down the aisle.

Miss Hay leaned upon the arm of her father and her maids followed closely. The little party was preceded by the ushers to the platform, where the bridegroom, with his best man, stood in waiting. Dr. Tunis Hamlin read the service quietly and without oratorical effect, and the responses were made in low but firm voices by both bride and groom.

BREAKFAST AT HAY HOME.

The carriages of the bridal party were driven directly to the Hay residence, where an elaborate wedding breakfast had been spread.

The guests were limited much more closely than in the admission to the church, and besides the president, with Mrs. Roosevelt and Alice Roosevelt, the faces at the table were those of members of the Hay and Whitney families, college chums of the groom and intimate friends of the bride. The house was artistically decorated with flowers and plants. Breakfast was served on small, round tables, each having a centerpiece of white roses or lilacs in a plaque of green. Before each plate was a white satin box, bearing the initials of the couple, containing wedding cake, as a souvenir of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney left in a private car on a short wedding tour during the afternoon, and it is believed that their destination was Thomasville, Ga.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ will meet with Mrs. E. W. Allen, 201 West Jefferson street, Friday afternoon.

CHANGES AT BROOKSIDE FARM

MANAGER PETER RAE TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION.

Will be Succeeded by Alexander Forbes, of Crawfordsville—Other Changes are Made

Peter Rae has tendered his resignation as manager of Brookside farm, the property of John H. Bass, and leaves soon to take a position as manager of the big stock farm of Galbraith Bros., of Salt Lake City. Mr. Rae will be succeeded by Alexander Forbes, of Crawfordsville, formerly stock manager for Mr. Bass. The change will go into effect at once.

Mr. Bass has decided to remove his prize stock to his farm near Maples and John Dickson, his present stock manager, will be in charge of the Maples farm and will engage in the business on an extensive scale. Herman Neiter, who has been manager of the Maples farm will assume the position of manager of the boarding house on the Bass estate, and will have charge of Mr. Bass' immense stock of poultry. Mr. Stewart, formerly with John Schaelker, in New Haven, has accepted the position of manager of Mr. Bass' farm east of the city, to succeed John Dickson.

ELKS' MINSTREL SHOW TONIGHT.

A limited number of seats in the balcony will be sold for 50c each.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The board of works will meet in regular session this evening and will take up the matter of providing a tool shed and other accommodations for the street commissioner's department, left over from last meeting. Owing to the absence of City Attorney Shambaugh from the city it is not at all probable that traction matters will be considered at all at this evening's meeting.

Chief Engineer Baxter, of the waterworks department, was surprised last evening by a party of about thirty friends, who called on him and his wife at their home at 90 Wilt street to remind them of the fact that they had been married just seventeen years. The visitors brought their own congratulations as well as their own grub, and after all the baskets and packages were opened there was a repast in sight that will haunt Tom for many a day.

HEADACHE CHARMED.

IT IS THE EXPERIENCE OF FORT WAYNE PEOPLE THAT PROVES THE MAGICAL EFFECT OF DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS WITH SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE.

It has never come to any other medicine—never to all medicines—the abundance of Fort Wayne testimony showing the unequaled merit established by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. There is probably no case of nervous sick headache they will not cure.

Mrs. John Irwin, of No. 16 Monroe street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "I used to suffer from good, hard, nervous sick headaches—headaches that prostrate and leave one nervous. I was advised to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and got some at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, No. 14 Calhoun street. The medicine has been a great boon, the headaches are gone and with them the attendant nervousness and depression. I think the Nerve Pills particularly good."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

HAGEDORN—CONRAD.

Miss Cora Hagedorn, youngest daughter of Herman Hagedorn, was united in marriage this afternoon at 2:30 to Charles Conrad, a traction company employe, by Rev. E. W. Allen, of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ, in his study. The bride was attired in a brown and white foulard silk dress, elaborately trimmed with lace and ribbon, and carried white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma Ruppel, who was attired in tan colored silk trimmed with blue panne velvet and lace. She carried pink carnations. The groomsman was Charles Akers. A wedding reception at the home of the bride, 20 Locust street, will occur this evening.

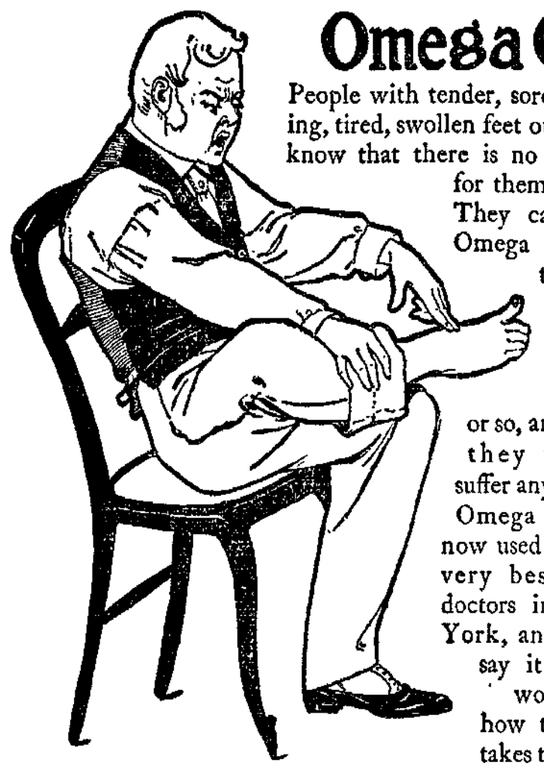
Tender Feet



Omega Oil

People with tender, sore, itching, tired, swollen feet ought to know that there is no excuse for them at all. They can rub Omega Oil on the feet each night for a week or so, and then they won't suffer any more. Omega Oil is now used by the very best foot doctors in New York, and they say it is just wonderful how the Oil takes the pain out of the feet. Bathe the feet in warm water, wipe dry, and then rub on the Oil. This treatment is particularly recommended to men and women who have to stand up or walk a good deal. Farmers, clerks, mechanics or women who do housework will find Omega Oil the best foot cure they ever tried.

Omega Oil is good for everything a liniment ought to be good for. 765

BECOMES A BRIDE

MISS HELEN HAY NOW MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY.

CEREMONY IN WASHINGTON

ONE OF THE MOST BRILLIANT OF EVENTS AT CAPITAL.

NOTABLE GUESTS PRESENT

PRESENTS TO BRIDE WERE OF UNUSUAL RICHNESS.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Helen Hay, eldest daughter of ex-Secretary of State John Hay, and Payne Whitney, of New York, son of ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, were married today at noon at the church of the Covenant. The wedding was the most notable social event of the season in Washington, being celebrated in the presence of the highest officials in the land, including the president and the cabinet, and of what is recognized as the best of New York and New England society. The Hay family has been in mourning since the death of Adelbert Hay, but for this one day the mourning was put aside and the wedding was celebrated with all the pomp and circumstances that would have characterized it otherwise.

MRS. PAYNE WHITNEY, NEE MISS HAY.

For several days past the guests have been gathering and preparations have been making for the wedding. The groom's father, ex-Secretary William C. Whitney, came to Washington with a party of distinguished friends, including Sir Edward Colebrooke, C. T. Barney, Miss Barney and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Paget, while Payne Whitney, the bridegroom, had gathered about him at the Arlington a large number of his college chums and friends.

PRESENTS ARE RICH.

Presents almost without number have been pouring into the Hay home for the last fortnight; it is believed their number exceeds four hundred, many being articles of almost priceless worth. But it has not been possible, owing to the reluctance of the family, to obtain a complete list of these presents, though it is known that they include houses and lands, a yacht and jewels and articles of vertu and art without number.

The church where the ceremony was performed was elaborately and artistically decorated with flowers and greens. Back of the pulpit and before the organ, tall, graceful palms formed a great bower of dark green, and beneath, like a miniature Niagara great sprays of easter lilies trailed to the ground. Candelabrum, twice as tall as a man, stood at either corner of the pulpit platform, each bearing twelve lights. Down the center aisle was a beautiful conception, a bridal path made up of easter lilies attached to the pews on either side. The walls of the church were festooned with southern smilax, topped off with great masses of easter lilies, caught up by bows of wide white ribbon.

CHURCH WAS CROWDED.

The church was crowded. Its seating capacity is only six hundred, which promised badly for the one thousand persons invited. It was realized that official Washington could not be accommodated even in a small measure, so the invitations were limited to friends of the contracting families, the only exceptions being in the case of the diplomatic body. Even here it was not possible to include in the invitations the entire diplomatic list and the elect were the heads of legations and their ladies alone. So in the case of the United States congress, the persons invited were those who were on personal relations with the Hay and Whitney families.

The ushers were all bachelor friends of the bridegroom, namely, Henry Clews, jr., Frederick Kernochan, J. N. Waterbury, jr., Milton S. Barger, Gouverneur Morris, of New York; James N. Wadsworth, of Geneseo, N. Y.; Hugh D. Scott, of Philadelphia, and Maj. Charles L. McCawley, U. S. M. C., of Washington. Mr. Whitney's best man was Eugene Hale, jr., son of the senior senator from Maine.

BRIDE'S PRETTY MAIDS.

The bride was assisted by two maids, her sister, Alice Hay, and Dorothy Whitney, the 15-year-old sister of the bridegroom. They were prettily gowned in gray crepe de chene, made over white silk, and wore great picture hats of white felt, with long white ostrich plumes. The bride wore neither jewels nor lace, and her toilet was one of extreme simplicity, consisting of a gown of pinin white satin, completed by a tulle veil caught in place by a coronet of orange blossoms.

A beautiful feature of the wedding was the musical program, which had been arranged by the Hay sisters and was rendered by Organist Harvey Murray. Four of the six numbers were selections from Wagner. The music was as follows: Pilgrim chorus, "The Evening Star," from Tannhauser; processional march of the master singers, the prize song from Die Meistersinger; wedding march by Dudley Buck, the swan song, Elsa entering the cathedral, introduction to third act and wedding music, Lohengrin; march from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream," Mendelssohn.

Half an hour before noon the church was well filled with guests, and as the hour of 12 approached not a seat was vacant. Admittance was by ticket only and the lines were rigidly drawn.

HAD PLACE OF HONOR.

President Roosevelt came early and was given the place of honor between the aisles in the first row of pews. He came with Mrs. Roosevelt and his daughter, Alice, and they preceded him as he came to the front of the church. On either side of the presidential party were the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom, and close behind were the members of the president's cabinet. The diplomatic corps were seated in the center of the church, the place of honor being held by Lord Pauncefote, the British ambassador, with the ladies of his family. Minister Wu and his wife were prominent figures in the diplomatic body, which included the heads or charges of every one of the embassies and missions to Washington.

The organist was softly playing the prize song from Die Meistersinger as the hour of 12 struck. Immediately the soft notes gave way to the splendid refrain of the Lohengrin wedding march, and the bridal party entered the church and moved down the aisle.

Miss Hay leaned upon the arm of her father and her maids followed closely. The little party was preceded by the ushers to the platform, where the bridegroom, with his best man, stood in waiting. Dr. Tunis Hamlin read the service quietly and without oratorical effect, and the responses were made in low but firm voices by both bride and groom.

BREAKFAST AT HAY HOME.

The carriages of the bridal party were driven directly to the Hay residence, where an elaborate wedding breakfast had been spread.

The guests were limited much more closely than in the admission to the church, and besides the president, with Mrs. Roosevelt and Alice Roosevelt, the faces at the table were those of members of the Hay and Whitney families, college chums of the groom and intimate friends of the bride. The house was artistically decorated with flowers and plants. Breakfast was served on small, round tables, each having a centerpiece of white roses or lilies in a plaque of green. Before each plate was a white satin box, bearing the initials of the couple, containing wedding cake, as a souvenir of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney left in a private car on a short wedding tour during the afternoon, and it is believed that their destination was Thomasville, Ga.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ will meet with Mrs. E. W. Allen, 201 West Jefferson street, Friday afternoon.

CHANGES AT BROOKSIDE FARM

MANAGER PETER RAE TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION.

Will be Succeeded by Alexander Forbes, of Crawfordsville—Other Changes are Made

Peter Rae has tendered his resignation as manager of Brookside farm, the property of John H. Bass, and leaves soon to take a position as manager of the big stock farm of Galbraith Bros., of Salt Lake City. Mr. Rae will be succeeded by Alexander Forbes, of Crawfordsville, formerly stock manager for Mr. Bass. The change will go into effect at once.

Mr. Bass has decided to remove his prize stock to his farm near Maples and John Dickson, his present stock manager, will be in charge of the Maples farm and will engage in the business on an extensive scale. Herman Neiter, who has been manager of the Maples farm will assume the position of manager of the boarding house on the Bass estate, and will have charge of Mr. Bass' immense stock of poultry. Mr. Stewart, formerly with John Schnelker, in New Haven, has accepted the position of manager of Mr. Bass' farm east of the city, to succeed John Dickson.

IT IS THE EXPERIENCE OF FORT WAYNE PEOPLE THAT PROVES THE MAGICAL EFFECT OF DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS WITH SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHE.

It has never come to any other medicine—never to all medicines—the abundance of Fort Wayne testimony showing the unequaled merit established by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. There is probably no case of nervous sick headache they will not cure.

Mrs. John Irwin, of No. 16 Monroe street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "I used to suffer from good, hard, nervous sick headaches—headaches that prostrate and leave one nervous. I was advised to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and got some at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, No. 14 Calhoun street. The medicine has been a great boon, the headaches are gone and with them the attendant nervousness and depression. I think the Nerve Pills particularly good."

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

The board of works will meet in regular session this evening and will take up the matter of providing a tool shed and other accommodations for the street commissioner's department, left over from last meeting. Owing to the absence of City Attorney Shambaugh from the city it is not at all probable that traction matters will be considered at all at this evening's meeting.

Chief Engineer Baxter, of the waterworks department, was surprised last evening by a party of about thirty friends, who called on him and his wife at their home at 90 Wilt street to remind them of the fact that they had been married just seventeen years. The visitors brought their own congratulations as well as their own grub, and after all the baskets and packages were opened there was a repast in sight that will haunt Tom for many a day.

HAGEDORN—CONRAD.

Miss Cora Hagedorn, youngest daughter of Herman Hagedorn, was united in marriage this afternoon at 2:30 to Charles Conrad, a traction company employe, by Rev. E. W. Allen, of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ, in his study. The bride was attired in a brown and white feulard silk dress, elaborately trimmed with lace and ribbon, and carried white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma Ruppel, who was attired in tan colored silk trimmed with blue panne velvet and lace. She carried pink carnations. The groomsman was Charles Akers. A wedding reception at the home of the bride, 20 Locust street, will occur this evening.

TRACTION COMPANY IS SUED

BARNETT & SONS ASK FOR $500 DAMAGES.

One of Their Vehicles Struck by a Car—Many Allegations Made —The Court News.

A. G. Barnett & Sons, proprietors of the Fort Wayne transfer and baggage line, have commenced suit against the Fort Wayne Traction company for damages placed at $500. The damage is alleged to have resulted on the 14th of January, 1902, at or about midnight, and occasioned by the striking of one of the plaintiff's teams by a rapidly moving car owned and operated by the defendant. The incident as related by the news reporters was that a baggage wagon had been struck by a street car at or about the hour mentioned and one of the horses was killed; the wagon was also wrecked. The complaint states that the car was running at a rate of speed not less than thirty-five miles an hour; that there was no warning bell struck as the car approached the crossing; that the plaintiff was exercising due care in approaching the crossing where the accident occurred; that the motorman in charge of the defendant's car is partially deaf and has impaired vision, both of which defects are known and have been known to the defendant for a long time; that the carelessness of the defendant's agents or employes caused a loss to the plaintiffs in the killing of a horse and the wrecking of a wagon, which, together with the costs of the suit involved in attempting collection could fairly be placed at $500; therefore damages in that sum are prayed for. The complaint is a thorough and rather lengthy document.

Daniel Hurley, the Lafayette street saloonkeeper, appears as defendant in a suit instituted by the Manhattan Table company, claiming $10 damages and possession of property.

Mendel Frank, whose dog was more or less righteously killed by the police department this morning, is defendant in a suit instituted by Adam Hantzler, who claims $1,000 damages by reason of the aforesaid dog biting his 11-year-old son, John, about a thousand dollars' worth, on the 31st of January. The complaint alleges that the dog, without provocation on the part of the lad, leaped upon him on the date mentioned while the boy was peacefully pursuing his way to school; that the dog was known to his owner as a vicious animal, for whose restraint the owner took no pains, and that by reason of the attack described the parents of the boy were put to much expense and the boy to much pain and anguish, the latter also shared by the parents.

Louisa McCormick sues I. Frank McCormick for $1,050 on account.

The county commissioners are in session today considering road matters. In relation to the Hageman road, in Adams township, the report of the viewers recommending the vacation of part of the road was accepted, and then on another petition relating to practically the same road, David Dalman, Charles Jeanmongin and John Forbin were appointed reviewers. On the Martin road, in St. Joseph township, B. Frederick, F. P. Otto and James Astry were appointed viewers.

The will of the late Frank Bardley was admitted to probate today, as was the will of Martin Masel. Both testators left their properties to the immediate members of their families.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan returned from Michigan City this afternoon, after having safely delivered Charles Dunn to the warden of the northern penal institution. The delivery took place last evening and Mr. Ryan says that the old man bid him good-bye with as much complacency and sangfroid as though he were just passing the compliments of the day.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Charles M. Conrad and Cora Hagadorn.

William S. Disler and Clara Alter.

A THOUSAND DOLLARS THROWN AWAY.

Mr. W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife had lung trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did, and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has ever known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it." Sold by Dreier & Bro. and Pellens & Polster.

HURT MAY CAUSE DEATH.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 6.—An injury to a toe, sustained in a peculiar manner, may cause the death of Dexter Gardner, police commissioner and a well known business man of Vincennes. Mr. Gardner was traveling southward from Chicago Nov. 21, sitting with his feet on the seat in front, when a fellow passenger angrily reversed the seat, crushing Mr. Gardner's foot. Blood poisoning set in, and to save the patient's life the leg must be taken off. Mr. Gardner has expressed the purpose to present the detached member to the man who did him the injury and sue him for damages if he can locate him. The irate passenger boarded the train at Terre Haute with his wife and two children and got off at Shelburn.

YOUR STOMACH IS WORTH SAVING.

The Frightful Increase of Stomach Trouble is Due to Carelessness.

You would not think of taking a hatchet and chopping off a few fingers or toes, now would you? And yet a few fingers or toes could be a great deal more easily spared than you can spare a good sound stomach. In these days of feverish haste and hurry the stomach is likely to suffer more than any other organ of the body. Nervousness brings on stomach trouble and a disordered stomach causes nervousness—it's a combination that ought to be broken up immediately, or serious results will follow. The man who neglects stomach or bowels when they are out of order is only choosing another form of suicide. Peptorene, the Health Tablet, is the proper prescription for a disordered stomach or bowels. It contains the natural digestive agents that are lacking in the dyspeptic stomach and without which the stomach cannot hope to do its work. It strengthens the liver and bowels, and induces a free, easy action of the latter. The stomach is soon in a condition to take care of the food given it, the blood is consequently enriched, and the whole system is strengthened. The dyspepsic who, a week or so before, sees everything through blue glasses, picks up vitality and energy, and is another sort of a person entirely. If you wish to treat your stomach rightly get a box of Peptorene for 25 cents. Write for free trial treatment to the manufacturers, the Battle Creek Health Tablet Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich. Sold by Meyer Bros. & Co., Pellens & Polster, A. C. Gocke and Wm. L. Waltemath.

INDICT MAYOR FOR BRIBERY.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 6.—The grand jury at Carlinville has returned an indictment against John H. Harding, mayor of Staunton, who is charged with accepting a bribe of $750 from Lewis Dixon, an employe of the Fort Wayne Electric works at Fort Wayne, Ind., in the matter of a dynamo purchased for the city of Staunton at "an exorbitant price" of $1,850. It is said that Harding, in consideration of the bribe, used his influence with the city council to secure the purchase of the dynamo.

SMALLPOX VICTIM AT LARGE.

Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 6.—Ike Murphy, the Greentown smallpox suspect, who last week drove away white-cappers with a shotgun, escaped quarantine and is again at large. He walked to Sycamore and took a Clover Leaf train for Swayzee, where he was last seen. He is headed for Marion.

SAVED HER CHILD'S LIFE.

"In three weeks our chubby little boy was changed by Pneumonia almost to a skeleton," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, O. "A terrible cough set in, that, in spite of a good doctor's treatment for several weeks, grew worse every day. We then used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was soon sound and well. We are sure this grand medicine saved his life." Millions know it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Dreier & Bro. guarantee satisfaction. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free.

BOY BURGLARS CONFESS.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 6.—Sheriff Morgan yesterday morning arrested Edward Winkleplek, aged 17, and James Fellers, aged 18, both country boys, charged with robbing a hardware store of $100 worth of knives, razors and revolvers. The boys admit their guilt and say they did it for the excitement of the affair. They revealed the hiding place and most of the booty was recovered. The lads live about ten miles northeast of here and are the sons of wealthy and well-to-do parents.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Speculation at the opening of the grain markets today was of the non-committal sort. Trade was very quiet. What there was of the meagre news influenced traders toward the selling side. May wheat opened ½c lower to unchanged at 77⅝c to 77¾c on slightly easy cables, some small selling and favorable reports of growing crops. Early sales for May were as low as 77¼@77⅜c. At this price covering was profitable to many of the crowd and gradually as a number of buying orders were executed May reacted. The sentiment seemed to undergo a change and May sold to 78c. The weather, though moderating, still retards the interior movement seriously. Local receipts today were limited to 1 car. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 217 cars, a total for the three points of only 218 cars, against 341 last week and 337 a year ago.

Revival of the export demand and bullish advices from St. Louis and Kansas City, with a slightly better cash situation, helped May wheat up to 78¼c. The close was firm, ⅜@½c higher, at 78⅛@78¼c.

Early conditions in corn indicated a dull day. There was no important news and trade took on no features early. May opened ½c to ¼c down at 63c to 62⅞c with wheat. The cables were slightly lower, but did not show as much decline as was registered here yesterday. The southwest was selling to some extent and commission houses had selling orders. Weather conditions favored lighter feeding, but retarded the movement to such an extent that today's receipts were only 20 cars. Predictions also were for colder weather soon. Under such influence May fluctuated very narrowly and at the end of the first hour was at 63⅛c.

Corn had a small upturn in prices with wheat, May selling up late to 63⅜@63½c and closing firm, ½c higher, at 63⅜c.

Oats was fairly well supported at the opening. May started unchanged to a shade lower at 44c to 43⅞c on the early bearish feeling in other pits. Business was dull, but prices held and May later sold to 44⅛c. Receipts were only 41 cars.

Provisions were quiet but better prices at the yards caused pork to sell up at the opening. Later fluctuations were narrow with fractional declinations on selling. May pork opened 5c higher at $15.90 and lost the gain; May lard started a shade up at $8.47½, and May ribs a shade higher at $8.47½@8.50 and sold off 2½c.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Feb., 75¼c; May, 78⅛@78¼c; July, 78⅜@78½c.

Corn—Feb., 60½c; May, 63⅜c; July, 63⅛c; Sept., 62¼c.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 6.—There was a very active demand for a number of stocks which were favorites in yesterday's speculation. Metropolitan Street Railway jumped 2⅜ and the other local tractions were strong in sympathy. Northwest rose 1½ on the transfer of 1,000 shares and United States Express opened up 3½. There was very large absorption of United States Steel stocks and of Southern Pacific, but their advances were fractional. Amalgamated Copper ran off after opening up a fraction.

The market became feverish and yielding, Amalgamated Copper and the tractions leading the reaction. Metropolitan Street Railway and Sugar fell back to yesterday's close and Amalgamated over a point under. Southern Pacific and recently prominent specialties rose strongly but the movement was very uneven. The advance reached 2¼ in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie preferred, 2 in Cleveland, C., C. & St. Louis, 2⅜ in Illinois Central, 2 in Lake Erie and Western and a point or over in Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis. Iowa Central, New York Central, Wheeling and Lake Erie and Consolidated Gas. Lackawanna declined 1¾. The grangers, Pacifics and United States Steel stocks fell back, some of them falling below last night and pulled back Southern Pacific and checked the upward tendency elsewhere. The market hardened again before 11 o'clock.

Buying developed at several new spots while there was selling at other points, notably in Sugar and Amalgamated. Pennsylvania was prominent in the rise and its gain of 1⅛ was re-enforced by similar or larger gains in Toledo, St. Louis and Western preferred, Iowa Central preferred and Rock Island. Northwestern stocks rose 2¾ and 2¼ respectively for the common and preferred and Illinois Central touched 140½. Lackawanna fell a point further and American Express and United States Express were also a point lower. The tone of the market was rather heavy and dull at noon.

Bonds were firm.

HIS DUAL LIFE REVEALED.

Lebanon, Ind., Feb. 6.—Recently William Wright, a respected citizen of Whitestown, died and was buried. Before death he requested that his watch should be sent to his son, Charles T. Wright, of Chicago, and his wishes were respected by the widow. This led to a correspondence, which disclosed that since 1876 William Wright had been leading a dual life. Through an investigation by wife No. 1, who came to this city, it was found that after abandoning his family in Chicago, Wright went to Whitestown, where he married Mrs. Elizabeth J. Brandorn, a young widow, with whom he lived happily until his death. He made annual visits to his wife and children in Chicago until 1893, representing himself as traveling over the country selling lightning rods. In his will he bequeathed $500 life insurance to his second wife, and she also applied for a widow's pension, Mr. Wright having served in the civil war in company A, Eighty-first Indiana. But for the dying request with reference to the watch neither wife would have known of the existence of the other. The world was also ignorant of the double life he was living.

CITY OFFICIAL ARRESTED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Philip Gerst, former city treasurer, was arrested today charged with misappropriating $27,000 of the city's funds. Gerst was removed from office in December last by Mayor Diehl. He was charged at that time with misconduct in office and during the investigation of the charge admitted misappropriating $50,000. Since that time an investigation of the city treasurer's office has been made under the new city administration of Mayor Knight.

BABY OF DOWIEITES DIES.

Flora, Ind., Feb. 6.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Sandifer, followers of Dowie, living one mile east of this city, died Tuesday night, the parents refusing to summon a physician. Before Mrs. Sandifer became ill she stated that no doctor would be called, and later the pleadings of friends were ignored by both her and her husband, who positively declared that faith in God was all that was necessary. Mrs. Sandifer's condition became serious yesterday morning and one of Dowie's elders was summoned from Chicago to pray for her, the faith healer arriving in the afternoon. Public indignation is at fever heat. Mr. Sandifer claims to have been healed recently of a long-standing ailment by Dowie's faith.

TRACTION COMPANY IS SUED

BARNETT & SONS ASK FOR $500 DAMAGES.

One of Their Vehicles Struck by a Car—Many Allegations Made —The Court News.

A. G. Barnett & Sons, proprietors of the Fort Wayne transfer and baggage line, have commenced suit against the Fort Wayne Traction company for damages placed at $500. The damage is alleged to have resulted on the 14th of January, 1902, at or about midnight, and occasioned by the striking of one of the plaintiff's teams by a rapidly moving car owned and operated by the defendant. The incident as related by the news reporters was that a baggage wagon had been struck by a street car at or about the hour mentioned and one of the horses was killed; the wagon was also wrecked. The complaint states that the car was running at a rate of speed not less than thirty-five miles an hour; that there was no warning bell struck as the car approached the crossing; that the plaintiff was exercising due care in approaching the crossing where the accident occurred; that the motorman in charge of the defendant's car is partially deaf and has impaired vision, both of which defects are known and have been known to the defendant for a long time; that the carelessness of the defendant's agents or employes caused a loss to the plaintiffs in the killing of a horse and the wrecking of a wagon, which, together with the costs of the suit involved in attempting collection could fairly be placed at $500; therefore damages in that sum are prayed for. The complaint is a thorough and rather lengthy document.

Daniel Hurley, the Lafayette street saloonkeeper, appears as defendant in a suit instituted by the Manhattan Table company, claiming $10 damages and possession of property.

Mendel Frank, whose dog was more or less righteously killed by the police department this morning, is defendant in a suit instituted by Adam Hantzler, who claims $1,000 damages by reason of the aforesaid dog biting his 11-year-old son, John, about a thousand dollars' worth, on the 31st of January. The complaint alleges that the dog, without provocation on the part of the lad, leaped upon him on the date mentioned while the boy was peacefully pursuing his way to school; that the dog was known to his owner as a vicious animal, for whose restraint the owner took no pains, and that by reason of the attack described the parents of the boy were put to much expense and the boy to much pain and anguish, the latter also shared by the parents.

Louisa McCormick sues I. Frank McCormick for $1,050 on account.

The county commissioners are in session today considering road matters. In relation to the Hageman road, in Adams township, the report of the viewers recommending the vacation of part of the road was accepted, and then on another petition relating to practically the same road, David Dalman, Charles Jeammongin and John Forbin were appointed reviewers. On the Martin road, in St. Joseph township, B. Frederick, F. P. Otto and James Autry were appointed viewers.

The will of the late Frank Bardley was admitted to probate today, as was the will of Martin Masel. Both testators left their properties to the immediate members of their families.

Deputy Sheriff Ryan returned from Michigan City this afternoon, after having safely delivered Charles Dunn to the warden of the northern penal institution. The delivery took place last evening and Mr. Ryan says that the old man bid him good-bye with as much complacency and sangfroid as though he were just passing the compliments of the day.

HURT MAY CAUSE DEATH.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 6.—An injury to a toe, sustained in a peculiar manner, may cause the death of Dexter Gardner, police commissioner and a well known business man of Vincennes. Mr. Gardner was traveling southward from Chicago Nov. 21, sitting with his feet on the seat in front, when a fellow passenger angrily reversed the seat, crushing Mr. Gardner's foot. Blood poisoning set in, and to save the patient's life the leg must be taken off. Mr. Gardner has expressed the purpose to present the detached member to the man who did him the injury and sue him for damages if he can locate him. The irate passenger boarded the train at Terre Haute with his wife and two children and got off at Shelburn.

YOUR STOMACH IS WORTH SAVING.

The Frightful Increase of Stomach Trouble is Due to Carelessness.

You would not think of taking a hatchet and chopping off a few fingers or toes, now would you? And yet a few fingers or toes could be a great deal more easily spared than you can spare a good sound stomach. In these days of feverish haste and hurry the stomach is likely to suffer more than any other organ of the body. Nervousness brings on stomach trouble and a disordered stomach causes nervousness—it's a combination that ought to be broken up immediately, or serious results will follow. The man who neglects stomach or bowels when they are out of order is only choosing another form of suicide. Peptorene, the Health Tablet, is the proper prescription for a disordered stomach or bowels. It contains the natural digestive agents that are lacking in the dyspeptic stomach and without which the stomach cannot hope to do its work. It strengthens the liver and bowels, and induces a free, easy action of the latter. The stomach is soon in a condition to take care of the food given it, the blood is consequently enriched, and the whole system is strengthened. The dyspepsic who, a week or so before, sees everything through blue glasses, picks up vitality and energy, and is another sort of a person entirely. If you wish to treat your stomach rightly get a box of Peptorene for 25 cents. Write for free trial treatment to the manufacturers, the Battle Creek Health Tablet Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich. INDICT MAYOR FOR BRIBERY.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 6.—The grand jury at Carlinville has returned an indictment against John H. Harding, mayor of Staunton, who is charged with accepting a bribe of $750 from Lewis Dixon, an employe of the Fort Wayne Electric works at Fort Wayne, Ind., in the matter of a dynamo purchased for the city of Staunton at "an exorbitant price" of $1,850. It is said that Harding, in consideration of the bribe, used his influence with the city council to secure the purchase of the dynamo.

SMALLPOX VICTIM AT LARGE.

Kokomo, Ind., Feb. 6.—Ike Murphy, the Greentown smallpox suspect, who last week drove away white-cappers with a shotgun, escaped quarantine and is again at large. He walked to Sycamore and took a Clover Leaf train for Swayzee, where he was last seen. He is headed for Marion.

SAVED HER CHILD'S LIFE.

"In three weeks our chubby little boy was changed by Pneumonia almost to a skeleton," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, O. "A terrible cough set in, that, in spite of a good doctor's treatment for several weeks, grew worse every day. We then used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was soon sound and well. We are sure this grand medicine saved his life." Millions know it's the only sure cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung Diseases. Dreier & Bro. guarantee satisfaction. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free.

BOY BURGLARS CONFESS.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 6.—Sheriff Morgan yesterday morning arrested Edward Winkleplek, aged 17, and James Fellers, aged 18, both country boys, charged with robbing a hardware store of $100 worth of knives, razors and revolvers. The boys admit their guilt and say they did it for the excitement of the affair. They revealed the hiding place and most of the booty was recovered. The lads live about ten miles northeast of here and are the sons of wealthy and well-to-do parents.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—Speculation at the opening of the grain markets today was of the non-committal sort. Trade was very quiet. What there was of the meagre news influenced traders toward the selling side. May wheat opened ⅛c lower to unchanged at 77⅜c to 77⅝c on slightly easy cables, some small selling and favorable reports of growing crops. Early sales for May were as low as 77⅛@77⅜c. At this price covering was profitable to many of the crowd and gradually as a number of buying orders were executed May reacted. The sentiment seemed to undergo a change and May sold to 78c. The weather, though moderating, still retards the interior movement seriously. Local receipts today were limited to 1 car. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 217 cars, a total for the three points of only 218 cars, against 341 last week and 337 a year ago.

Revival of the export demand and bullish advices from St. Louis and Kansas City, with a slightly better cash situation, helped May wheat up to 78¼c. The close was firm, ⅜@⅝c higher, at 78⅛@78¼c.

Early conditions in corn indicated a dull day. There was no important news and trade took on no features early. May opened ⅛c to ¼c down at 63c to 62¾c with wheat. The cables were slightly lower, but did not show as much decline as was registered here yesterday. The southwest was selling to some extent and commission houses had selling orders. Weather conditions favored lighter feeding, but retarded the movement to such an extent that today's receipts were only 20 cars. Predictions also were for colder weather soon. Under such influence May fluctuated very narrowly and at the end of the first hour was at 63⅛c.

Corn had a small upturn in prices with wheat, May selling up late to 63⅜@63⅝c and closing firm, ¼c higher, at 63⅜c.

Oats was fairly well supported at the opening. May started unchanged to a shade lower at 44c to 43⅞c on the early bearish feeling in other pits. Business was dull, but prices held and May later sold to 44⅛c. Receipts were only 41 cars.

Provisions were quiet but better prices at the yards caused pork to sell up at the opening. Later fluctuations were narrow with fractional declinations on selling. May pork opened 5c higher at $15.90 and lost the gain; May lard started a shade up at $9.47½, and May ribs a shade higher at $8.47½@8.50 and sold off 2½c.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Feb. 6.—There was a very active demand for a number of stocks which were favorites in yesterday's speculation. Metropolitan Street Railway jumped 2⅜ and the other local traction were strong in sympathy. Northwest rose 1½ on the transfer of 1,000 shares and United States Express opened up 3½. There was very large absorption of United States Steel stocks and of Southern Pacific, but their advances were fractional. Amalgamated Copper ran off after opening up a fraction.

The market became feverish and yielding, Amalgamated Copper and the tractions leading the reaction. Metropolitan Street Railway and Sugar fell back to yesterday's close and Amalgamated over a point under. Southern Pacific and recently prominent specialties rose strongly but the movement was very uneven. The advance reached 2¼ in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie preferred, 2 in Cleveland, C., C. & St. Louis, 2⅜ in Illinois Central, 2 in Lake Erie and Western and a point or over in Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio, Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, Iowa Central, New York Central, Wheeling and Lake Erie and Consolidated Gas. Lackawanna declined 1¾. The grangers, Pacifics and United States Steel stocks fell back, some of them falling below last night and pulled back Southern Pacific and checked the upward tendency elsewhere. The market hardened again before 11 o'clock.

Buying developed at several new spots while there was selling at other points, notably in Sugar and Amalgamated. Pennsylvania was prominent in the rise and its gain of 1⅛ was re-enforced by similar or larger gains in Toledo, St. Louis and Western preferred, Iowa Central preferred and Rock Island. Northwestern stocks rose 2¾ and 2¼ respectively for the common and preferred and Illinois Central touched 140½. Lackawanna fell a point further and American Express and United States Express were also a point lower. The tone of the market was rather heavy and dull at noon.

Bonds were firm.

HIS DUAL LIFE REVEALED.

Lebanon, Ind., Feb. 6.—Recently William Wright, a respected citizen of Whitestown, died and was buried. Before death he requested that his watch should be sent to his son, Charles T. Wright, of Chicago, and his wishes were respected by the widow. This led to a correspondence, which disclosed that since 1876 William Wright had been leading a dual life. Through an investigation by wife No. 1, who came to this city, it was found that after abandoning his family in Chicago, Wright went to Whitestown, where he married Mrs. Elizabeth J. Brandorn, a young widow, with whom he lived happily until his death. He made annual visits to his wife and children in Chicago until 1893, representing himself as traveling over the country selling lightning rods. In his will he bequeathed $500 life insurance to his second wife, and she also applied for a widow's pension. Mr. Wright having served in the civil war in company A, Eighty-first Indiana. But for the dying request with reference to the watch neither wife would have known of the existence of the other. The world was also ignorant of the double life he was living.

CITY OFFICIAL ARRESTED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Philip Gerst, former city treasurer, was arrested today charged with misappropriating $27,000 of the city's funds. Gerst was removed from office in December last by Mayor Diehl. He was charged at that time with misconduct in office and during the investigation of the charge admitted misappropriating $30,000. Since that time an investigation of the city treasurer's office has been made under the new city administration of Mayor Knight.

BABY OF DOWIEITES DIES.

Flora, Ind., Feb. 6.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Sandifer, followers of Dowie, living one mile east of this city, died Tuesday night, the parents refusing to summon a physician. Before Mrs. Sandifer became ill she stated that no doctor would be called, and later the pleadings of friends were ignored by both her and her husband, who positively declared that faith in God was all that was necessary. Mrs. Sandifer's condition became serious yesterday morning and one of Dowie's elders was summoned from Chicago to pray for her, the faith healer arriving in the afternoon. Public indignation is at fever heat. Mr. Sandifer claims to have been healed recently of a long-standing ailment by Dowie's faith.

Blood Wine Effects Interesting Cure of Dyspepsia.

Few people know that the Standard Oil King, whose wealth is so great that he can't count it, but estimated to be somewhere between two and three hundred millions, has been troubled for years with a serious derangement of the digestive organs, and while he could live on the best the markets of the world produced he has been compelled to eke out an existence on bread and milk. His case has recently been brought before the attention of the proprietors of "Blood Wine," who after a careful study of his trouble decided that their remedy would help him; and several bottles have just been shipped to the multi-millionaire. If Mr. Rockefeller takes "Blood Wine" as directed by the chemist, whose skill figured prominently in compounding this splendid remedy, we shall undoubtedly hear of his normal functions being restored.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Stomach troubles, weaknesses throughout the digestive organs which cause constipation and upset the equilibrium of the whole system are brought on by irregular meals, imprudent eating and drinking, and a lack of the proper nourishment for the organs which secrete the gastric juices and make assimilation of the food possible. Some discretion should be exercised where stomach trouble is apparent, which if done and directions followed in using "Blood Wine," a permanent cure is almost sure to follow. "Blood Wine" makes digestive fluids. It supplies the missing something in the stomach that aids the digestion. It will overcome sick stomach, nausea, vomiting, help you to retain your food, and give you a good appetite.

It extracts the nourishment from the food and turns it into flesh, tissues, membranes, nerves and muscles. It will cure in a reasonable time old cases of constipation and give the bowels a free easy action at regular periods. "Blood Wine" contains no wine or opiates.

"I sat at my desk all day and for twenty-five years was troubled with constipation. My bowels would not move except by fits and starts and my breath and saliva threw off an awful odor; my face burned, eyes ached and I had a dragged-out feeling all the time. Regular medical aid failed to produce but temporary relief. With some prejudice I tried 'Blood Wine.' One bottle helped me. I then had more faith in it and got another bottle. By using a little common sense in my mode of living and the use of four bottles I effected a thorough cure and now I am actually a different, practically a new, man. William Curtin, Box 1246, Boston, Mass."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Pellens & Polster's drug store.

HAS NIGHT FORCE

THE WABASH FREIGHT HOUSE WORKING CREWS INCREASED.

GEO. JUDY CALLED HIGHER

SUPERINTENDENT OF M'KEE'S ROCK CAR SHOPS.

AN UNFORTUNATE SHOPMAN

GENE OPPENHEIMER LOSES A FINGER ON RIGHT HAND.

Agent Joseph Sullivan, of the Wabash freight department, has been compelled by the increase of business to make an addition to the force of freight handlers. He has put on a night gang of five men, with John Fry as foreman. The opening of the Butler line has been a good thing for Fort Wayne in more ways than one. In addition to bringing the city on the main line and making it a division terminal for several train crews, it has also opened places of employment for many of the people who were residing here before the opening. The Sentinel mentioned the additions to the yard force two or three weeks ago.

A BAD NIGHT FOR TRAINMEN.

The snow last night augmented the troubles caused by previous storms and cold weather and all trains were late in reaching the city. No. 15, on the Pittsburg, was five hours and twenty-six minutes late when she pulled into the city. This train was late in getting out of Crestline and was bothered with hot boxes, slippery tracks and drifting snow all the way from that city to Fort Wayne, losing nearly three hours in making the 131 miles. No. 6 and No. 18, eastbound trains, had their share of trouble on the west end, too. No. 6 broke a knuckel and when the engine pulled ahead the cords pulled out the signal whistle and other damage resulted. This accident happened at Indiana Harbor and other and less important detentions occurred at various places. The train was one hour and twenty minutes late in reaching this city. One train was delayed twenty minutes east of Fairfield avenue between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning by the rocker pin on the engine becoming detached and dropping down in the snow. The missing piece was finally recovered and replaced and the train then proceeded on its way. All trains on all roads were more or less late, the trouble being due chiefly to the weather and bad conditions of the tracks.

THE MODERN SNOW PLOW.

Zero weather and snow have made the lot of trainmen a most burdensome one for the past week. It is at such times as the present that public sympathy goes out to these men, and public interest in all things concerning them is augmented. The following, taken from the Wabash Plain Dealer, will therefore be especially interesting today: "One of the most novel experiences in railroading," remarked a Big Four official yesterday, "is the first trip one makes over the road inside of a snow plow. The plow requires about twelve men on the inside to operate it, which consists of the handling of the numerous wings extending from the front and sides of the plow. The drifts which are encountered necessitate the maintenance of a great speed and the rate of from sixty to eighty miles an hour is regarded as the proper speed with which to plow through a bank of snow. Work inside of a snow plow is not unlike laboring in the hold of a vessel. A mere streak of daylight penetrates the interior of the plow and torches are depended upon for furnishing all necessary light. When a huge drift of snow, sometimes hundreds of feet in length, in striking, the plow makes a desperate lunge and then settles down to the steady work of throwing tons of snow to each side of the track. Yes, there are many dangers connected with the work of the snow plow," continued the Big Four gentleman. "Oftentimes piles of ties and other track building material are left too close to the rails to permit the passage of the plow. In such cases, when the wings come in contact with such obstructions, the result is most disastrous, for if the plow leaves the track the men inside have no means of saving themselves, and all are in peril of their lives."

JUDY GETS GOOD THING.

News of a nice promotion which has fallen upon George H. Judy, reached this city last evening. He has been appointed superintendent of the McKees Rock plant of the Pittsburg Pressed Steel Car company, where hundreds of men are employed. Mr. Judy's rise has been remarkable, inasmuch as every promotion he has received has been made entirely upon merit. He came to Fort Wayne eighteen or twenty years ago from Cumberland, Md., where he was employed in the railway shops, and soon after his arrival, he was made foreman of the Pennsylvania company's 'smith shop. From here he went to the Barney & Smith company, Dayton, Ohio, and thence to Pennsylvania. He owns a house and lot on Hanna street and still takes considerable interest in Fort Wayne, though it is hardly probable that he will ever reside here again.

MEETS IN PITTSBURG.

Foreman T. J. Rodabaugh, of the paint department of the Pennsylvania, last night received a letter notifying him of the fact that the advisory committee of the Car and Locomotive Painters' Association of the United States and Canada would meet in the Hotel Lincoln, Pittsburg, on Saturday, February 22, to select and assign subjects for discussion and to otherwise prepare a program for the annual convention of the association, which will be held in Boston, September 9, 10, 11 and 12 next. Mr. Rodabaugh is a member of the advisory committee, and he will go to Pittsburg to attend the meeting upon the date mentioned. The annual convention of the association was held in Buffalo last summer.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

Brakeman Bunnard S. Maxwell, who was injured at New Haven last Wednesday afternoon, died from the wounds at 1:15 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph hospital, where he had been taken after the accident. J. L. Maxwell, of Findlay, a brother of the deceased, arrived in the city last night and took charge of the remains, taking them to Findlay this afternoon. Bunnard Maxwell was 27 years old and unmarried. He had been working about two weeks on the Wabash when he met with the accident.

WILL LOSE A FINGER.

News from Peru this morning was to the effect that Eugene Oppenheimer, who is in the Wabash railway hospital, would have the second finger of his right hand taken off today. The digit was injured in the shops in this city last week and after a vain effort to save it, the attending surgeon finds that he must resort to amputation to prevent blood poisoning. This will be most unwelcome news for the friends of the young man.

CHARLEY LEHMAN IN LUCK.

Charles Lehman, a former Fort Wayne resident and a son-in-law of Ernest Dehne, foreman of the Pittsburg pattern shops, has been called to a nice position in Pittsfield, Mass. He is foreman at that place of a factory engaged in the manufacture of electrical appliances and general supplies. Mr. Lehman was employed at the electric works in this city some time ago, leaving that establishment to take a position with the Siemens-Halske people at Chicago. Later he went to the Western Electric company.

FOUNDRY CRIPPLED.

That portion of the Bass foundry over which Foreman Klatt presides has been closed for repairs for two or three days and about sixty men are idle. The line shaft broke Tuesday and repairs are now in progress and will be completed this evening. The room will be in operation tomorrow as usual.

HAD TROUBLES OF THEIR OWN.

Chris Fosler, foreman of Wabash section men, and a good portion of his working force were compelled to work nearly all of last night. The snow packed about the switches in the yards so as to make them work badly and as a result two engines got off the tracks and the switches and their connections were temporarily put out of business. Mr. Fosler and his gang were called out early in the evening to repair one switch and had just completed this task when the other accident happened.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Boilermaker Fred Kaiser, of the Wabash shops, is sick.

Yard Conductor Ross Gardner, of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness.

W. F. Miller, of No. 54 Elm street, has taken a position as brakeman on the Nickel Plate.

William Schaffer is sick and absent from his duties at the Pittsburg freight house this morning.

H. E. Zeigman, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is detained at home by the serious illness of his mother.

H. C. Hartman, who was married last week, resumed his duties at the Pittsburg freight house this morning.

After an illness of three or four days, Fireman J. F. Magers reported for duty on the Pittsburg road this morning.

Charles Keller, a caller at the east yards, reported for duty yesterday. He had a foot hurt ten days ago at the coal docks.

The various department foremen and clerks at the Electric works have finished their part of the work of taking inventory and their reports have been turned into the main office.

Claude Keplinger, a traveling salesman, is the guest of his father, Engineer J. A. Keplinger, of the Pittsburg.

Frank L. Yahne, a painter in the east car shops, has been off duty for a few days with an attack of facial neuralgia.

Dispatcher Leroy Hartzell, of the Nickel Plate, has been disabled for a couple of days by a sprained wrist, the result of a fall.

Harry Templar, chief shop clerk at the Electric works, is off duty today, though very lame. He had a leg injured several days ago.

The Big Four company will build a new round house at Mattoon and enlarge the shops. The equipment for the shop has already been ordered.

New names on the sick lists at the Pittsburg shops are George Tolley, Louis Gromau, F. A. DeWald, W. Erdman, F. M. Richards, Thomas Williams and C. W. Rodenbeck.

C. E. Pierce now manipulates the throttle of a Grand Rapids and Indiana engine, making his first trip in the capacity of engineer yesterday. He was one of the recently promoted men.

Conductors E. B. Hilbish and J. S. Holly and Brakeman J. J. Auth reported for duty on the Nickel Plate yesterday. Mr. Hilbish was resting and Mr. Holly had sickness in his family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. McKee and their daughters left last night for Mobile, Ala., where the ladies will visit until the latter part of March, when the family will make that city their home in earnest.

Ed Manock and F. W. Thiebold, clerks at the east yards, were sick yesterday. Yard Brakeman Theodore Weaver is also sick and Yard Brakeman H. E. Nulf is nursing a badly frosted foot.

Nickel Plate Conductor David Watterson and Engineer Wash Frase are on the sick list. Conductors J. M. Wells and W. W. Harper are taking a rest. Conductor Kenbarger has taken Mr. Harper's place during the latter's absence.

The Wabash stations between Peru and Tilton have been arranged for the extension of the block system, with the exception of the "blocking off" at the stations, which will be done this month. The system will be put in operation about the 1st of March.

The strike trouble at Washington, Ind., has led a number of towns on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern to endeavor to secure the shops, making promises of land and subsidies to secure them. North Vernon, Ind., is agitating such a move with considerable earnestness, it is stated.

A. Van Horn, a car builder at the east shops, received an ugly gash on the right side of the face yesterday by a bolt falling from a scaffold and hitting him. After the wound received attention at the hands of the shop clerk, who has charge of the medicine chest, Mr. Van Horne resumed work.

The delay in traffic caused by the cold weather was not confined to the railways leading into Fort Wayne. From all directions come the same complaint. A well known railway man said to a Sentinel reporter yesterday that he believed there was not a road in the state whose trains made their trips on schedule time.

Nin Kohlman, a Nickel Plate fireman, has secured a thirty days' leave of absence, which he will devote to visiting relatives in Ohio and elsewhere. This lay-off has resulted in several changes in engine crews. A. F. Kartholl has taken Kohlman's place in the cab with Engineer M. F. McCarthy, George Conklin took Kartholl's place on yard engine 14, and Fred Lindenberg took Conklin's place on engine 6.

Indianapolis Journal: "Since the Lake Shore took control of the Lake Erie and Western its Fort Wayne and Cincinnati division has come rapidly to the front. The putting on of through trains between Cincinnati and Fort Wayne and Indianapolis and Fort Wayne, in connection with the Big Four, has increased its passenger business handsomely, and its freight traffic has so increased that an additional through freight has been put on to run nightly."

A. A. VanEvery, of the Pittsburg 'smith shop, had a thumb injured last evening, and was unable to report for duty this morning. The injury is not serious.

Charles Watts, general superintendent of passenger transportation of the Pennsylvania, passed through the city this morning on train No. 15, en route to Chicago.

Dorris Muirhead, of Bellevue, Ohio, an employe of the Nickel Plate, will arrive in the city tomorrow to look into a position that is open to him. It is quite probable that he will accept it.

Robert Metsker, son of A. W. Metsker, of 552 Broadway, has entered the employ of the Wabash as an apprentice in the mechanical department. He is a studious young man and will make a good mechanic.

Vincent Dawson has assumed the duties of the position of stenographer in the back room at Superintendent J. B. McKim's offices, vice Charles Spanley, promoted. The position formerly occupied by Ed Challenger remains vacant.

Joseph Jennings, of the main offices of the Fort Wayne Electric works, is lying ill at the home of his father, Division Operator J. G. Jennings, of the Pennsylvania. Mr. Jennings, jr., is also confined to his home from injuries received in a fall several days ago.

Mrs. D. Collins, whose unfortunate fall and injury to her limbs was mentioned in The Sentinel, is now able to get about with the assistance of crutches, after being helpless for two months. Mr. Collins, the husband of the unfortunate lady, is a well known Pittsburg shopman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ginder left last night for Lexington, Ky., upon receipt of a telegram that his mother had suffered a third stroke of paralysis and it was believed she could not survive the shock. Mr. Ginder is a crossing watchman in the employ of the Pennsylvania company and has been stationed at Broadway for the past year or two.

Hartford City News: "A new man has been added to the list of passenger conductors on the Fort Wayne division of the Lake Erie. Conductor Kohli, of the main line, has been transferred to the Fort Wayne division. He is a former newspaper cartoonist and while engaged by the railroads furnishes sketches for a leading Chicago newspaper. Passenger business on this division is too great for the regular crews."

Our January Sale is over, with a last day round up, that was a fitting climax for the greatest business we have ever known in our present or former history. While our regular reduction sale is closed it is not the close of the

BARGAIN SEASON.

Our business year does not end until March 1, when we take inventory. Until then you will find extra bargains in all our departments.

We are aware that this has been a year of good trade throughout the whole country, every one in business has been a sharer in it, and we are not so selfish as to regret the prosperity that has come to our neighbors and competitors, especially so, when we have had so satisfactory a portion of it ourselves.

This, however, has only been a

Whetting of Our Appetites,

giving us a legitimate craving for more.

This natural desire of business men to see their enterprises grow and increase under their close application and effort, will be more realized by us in the coming year if

will accomplish it.

While we believe no medium for bringing ourselves and our wares to the notice of the public, is superior to the regular newspaper advertisement, yet there are means that can be used as adjuncts, that are pleasing and advantageous. And when we consider them legitimate, popular and profitable we will not hesitate to adopt them.

We propose to continue the presenting of the

to all our "cash" customers and also call attention to the really elegant and beautiful portrait enlarged to life size from the photograph of yourself, member of your family or friend, as you choose, that you are entitled to free of cost with each $25 worth of goods bought from us. ROCKEFELLER'S STOMACH.

Obliged to Live on Bread and Milk but Worth Over $200,000,000.

Blood Wine Effects Interesting Cure of Dyspepsia.

Few people know that the Standard Oil King, whose wealth is so great that he can't count it, but estimated to be somewhere between two and three hundred millions, has been troubled for years with a serious derangement of the digestive organs, and while he could live on the best the markets of the world produced he has been compelled to eke out an existence on bread and milk. His case has recently been brought before the attention of the proprietors of "Blood Wine," who after a careful study of his trouble decided that their remedy would help him; and several bottles have just been shipped to the multi-millionaire. If Mr. Rockefeller takes "Blood Wine" as directed by the chemist, whose skill figured prominently in compounding this splendid remedy, we shall undoubtedly hear of his normal functions being restored.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

Stomach troubles, weaknesses throughout the digestive organs which cause constipation and upset the equilibrium of the whole system are brought on by irregular meals, imprudent eating and drinking, and a lack of the proper nourishment for the organs which secrete the gastric juices and make assimilation of the food possible. Some discretion should be exercised where stomach trouble is apparent, which if done and directions followed in using "Blood Wine," a permanent cure is almost sure to follow. "Blood Wine" makes digestive fluids. It supplies the missing something in the stomach that aids the digestion. It will overcome sick stomach, nausea, vomiting, help you to retain your food, and give you a good appetite.

It extracts the nourishment from the food and turns it into flesh, tissues, membranes, nerves and muscles. It will cure in a reasonable time old cases of constipation and give the bowels a free easy action at regular periods. "Blood Wine" contains no wine or opiates.

"I sat at my desk all day and for twenty-five years was troubled with constipation. My bowels would not move except by fits and starts and my breath and saliva threw off an awful odor; my face burned, eyes ached and I had a dragged-out feeling all the time. Regular medical aid failed to produce but temporary relief. With some prejudice I tried 'Blood Wine.' One bottle helped me. I then had more faith in it and got another bottle. By using a little common sense in my mode of living and the use of four bottles I effected a thorough cure and now I am actually a different, practically a new, man. William Curtin, Box 1246, Boston, Mass."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Pellens & Polster's drug store.

HAS NIGHT FORCE

THE WABASH FREIGHT HOUSE WORKING CREWS INCREASED.

GEO. JUDY CALLED HIGHER

SUPERINTENDENT OF M'KEE'S ROCK CAR SHOPS.

AN UNFORTUNATE SHOPMAN

GENE OPPENHEIMER LOSES A FINGER ON RIGHT HAND.

Agent Joseph Sullivan, of the Wabash freight department, has been compelled by the increase of business to make an addition to the force of freight handlers. He has put on a night gang of five men, with John Fry as foreman. The opening of the Butler line has been a good thing for Fort Wayne in more ways than one. In addition to bringing the city on the main line and making it a division terminal for several train crews, it has also opened places of employment for many of the people who were residing here before the opening. The Sentinel mentioned the additions to the yard force two or three weeks ago.

A BAD NIGHT FOR TRAINMEN.

The snow last night augmented the troubles caused by previous storms and cold weather and all trains were late in reaching the city. No. 15, on the Pittsburg, was five hours and twenty-six minutes late when she pulled into the city. This train was late in getting out of Crestline and was bothered with hot boxes, slippery tracks and drifting snow all the way from that city to Fort Wayne, losing nearly three hours in making the 131 miles. No. 6 and No. 18, eastbound trains, had their share of trouble on the west end, too. No. 6 broke a knuckel and when the engine pulled ahead the cords pulled out the signal whistle and other damage resulted. This accident happened at Indiana Harbor and other and less important detentions occurred at various places. The train was one hour and twenty minutes late in reaching this city. One train was delayed twenty minutes east of Fairfield avenue between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning by the rocker pin on the engine becoming detached and dropping down in the snow. The missing piece was finally recovered and replaced and the train then proceeded on its way. All trains on all roads were more or less late, the trouble being due chiefly to the weather and bad conditions of the tracks.

THE MODERN SNOW PLOW.

Zero weather and snow have made the lot of trainmen a most burdensome one for the past week. It is at such times as the present that public sympathy goes out to these men, and public interest in all things concerning them is augmented. The following, taken from the Wabash Plain Dealer, will therefore be especially interesting today: "One of the most novel experiences in railroading," remarked a Big Four official yesterday, "is the first trip one makes over the road inside of a snow plow. The plow requires about twelve men on the inside to operate it, which consists of the handling of the numerous wings extending from the front and sides of the plow. The drifts which are encountered necessitate the maintenance of a great speed and the rate of from sixty to eighty miles an hour is regarded as the proper speed with which to plow through a bank of snow. Work inside of a snow plow is not unlike laboring in the hold of a vessel. A mere streak of daylight penetrates the interior of the plow and torches are depended upon for furnishing all necessary light. When a huge drift of snow, sometimes hundreds of feet in length, in striking, the plow makes a desperate lunge and then settles down to the steady work of throwing tons of snow to each side of the track. Yes, there are many dangers connected with the work of the snow plow," continued the Big Four gentleman. "Oftentimes piles of ties and other track building material are left too close to the rails to permit the passage of the plow. In such cases, when the wings come in contact with such obstructions, the result is most disastrous, for if the plow leaves the track the men inside have no means of saving themselves, and all are in peril of their lives."

JUDY GETS GOOD THING.

News of a nice promotion which has fallen upon George H. Judy, reached this city last evening. He has been appointed superintendent of the McKees Rock plant of the Pittsburg Pressed Steel Car company, where hundreds of men are employed. Mr. Judy's rise has been remarkable, inasmuch as every promotion he has received has been made entirely upon merit. He came to Fort Wayne eighteen or twenty years ago from Cumberland, Md., where he was employed in the railway shops, and soon after his arrival, he was made foreman of the Pennsylvania company's 'smith shop. From here he went to the Barney & Smith company, Dayton, Ohio, and thence to Pennsylvania. He owns a house and lot on Hanna street and still takes considerable interest in Fort Wayne, though it is hardly probable that he will ever reside here again.

MEETS IN PITTSBURG.

Foreman T. J. Rodabaugh, of the paint department of the Pennsylvania, last night received a letter notifying him of the fact that the advisory committee of the Car and Locomotive Painters' Association of the United States and Canada would meet in the Hotel Lincoln, Pittsburg, on Saturday, February 22, to select and assign subjects for discussion and to otherwise prepare a program for the annual convention of the association, which will be held in Boston, September 9, 10, 11 and 12 next. Mr. Rodabaugh is a member of the advisory committee, and he will go to Pittsburg to attend the meeting upon the date mentioned. The annual convention of the association was held in Buffalo last summer.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

Brakeman Bunnard S. Maxwell, who was injured at New Haven last Wednesday afternoon, died from the wounds at 1:15 o'clock this morning at St. Joseph hospital, where he had been taken after the accident. J. L. Maxwell, of Findlay, a brother of the deceased, arrived in the city last night and took charge of the remains, taking them to Findlay this afternoon. Bunnard Maxwell was 27 years old and unmarried. He had been working about two weeks on the Wabash when he met with the accident.

WILL LOSE A FINGER.

News from Peru this morning was to the effect that Eugene Oppenheimer, who is in the Wabash railway hospital, would have the second finger of his right hand taken off today. The digit was injured in the shops in this city last week and after a vain effort to save it, the attending surgeon finds that he must resort to amputation to prevent blood poisoning. This will be most unwelcome news for the friends of the young man.

CHARLEY LEHMAN IN LUCK.

Charles Lehman, a former Fort Wayne resident and a son-in-law of Ernest Dehne, foreman of the Pittsburg pattern shops, has been called to a nice position in Pittsfield, Mass. He is foreman at that place of a factory engaged in the manufacture of electrical appliances and general supplies. Mr. Lehman was employed at the electric works in this city some time ago, leaving that establishment to take a position with the Siemens-Halske people at Chicago. Later he went to the Western Electric company.

FOUNDRY CRIPPLED.

That portion of the Bass foundry over which Foreman Kleft presides has been closed for repairs for two or three days and about sixty men are idle. The line shaft broke Tuesday and repairs are now in progress and will be completed this evening. The room will be in operation tomorrow as usual.

HAD TROUBLES OF THEIR OWN.

Chris Fosler, foreman of Wabash section men, and a good portion of his working force were compelled to work nearly all of last night. The snow packed about the switches in the yards so as to make them work badly and as a result two engines got off the tracks and the switches and their connections were temporarily put out of business. Mr. Fosler and his gang were called out early in the evening to repair one switch and had just completed this task when the other accident happened.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Boilermaker Fred Kaiser, of the Wabash shops, is sick.

Yard Conductor Ross Gardner, of the Pittsburg, is off duty on account of sickness.

W. F. Miller, of No. 54 Elm street, has taken a position as brakeman on the Nickel Plate.

William Schaffer is sick and absent from his duties at the Pittsburg fruight house this morning.

H. E. Zeigman, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is detained at home by the serious illness of his mother.

H. C. Hartman, who was married last week, resumed his duties at the Pittsburg freight house this morning.

After an illness of three or four days, Fireman J. F. Magers reported for duty on the Pittsburg road this morning.

Charles Keller, a caller at the east yards, reported for duty yesterday. He had a foot hurt ten days ago at the coal docks.

The various department foremen and clerks at the Electric works have finished their part of the work of taking inventory and their reports have been turned into the main office.

Claude Keplinger, a traveling salesman, is the guest of his father, Engineer J. A. Keplinger, of the Pittsburg.

Frank L. Yahne, a painter in the east car shops, has been off duty for a few days with an attack of facial neuralgia.

Dispatcher Leroy Hartzell, of the Nickel Plate, has been disabled for a couple of days by a sprained wrist, the result of a fall.

Harry Templar, chief shop clerk at the Electric works, is off duty today, though very lame. He had a leg injured several days ago.

The Big Four company will build a new round house at Mattoon and enlarge the shops. The equipment for the shop has already been ordered.

New names on the sick lists at the Pittsburg shops are George Tolley, Louis Gronau, F. A. DeWald, W. Erdman, F. M. Richards, Thomas Williams and C. W. Rodenbeck.

C. E. Pierce now manipulates the throttle of a Grand Rapids and Indiana engine, making his first trip in the capacity of engineer yesterday. He was one of the recently promoted men.

Conductors E. B. Hilbish and J. S. Holly and Brakeman J. J. Auth reported for duty on the Nickel Plate yesterday. Mr. Hilbish was resting and Mr. Holly had sickness in his family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. McKee and their daughters left last night for Mobile, Ala., where the ladies will visit until the latter part of March, when the family will make that city their home in earnest.

Ed Manock and F. W. Thiebold, clerks at the east yards, were sick yesterday. Yard Brakeman Theodore Weaver is also sick and Yard Brakeman H. E. Nulf is nursing a badly frosted foot.

Nickel Plate Conductor David Watterson and Engineer Wash Frase are on the sick list. Conductors J. M. Wells and W. W. Harper are taking a rest. Conductor Menbarger has taken Mr. Harper's place during the latter's absence.

The Wabash stations between Peru and Tilton have been arranged for the extension of the block system, with the exception of the "blocking off" at the stations, which will be done this month. The system will be put in operation about the 1st of March.

The strike trouble at Washington, Ind., has led a number of towns on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern to endeavor to secure the shops, making promises of land and subsidies to secure them. North Vernon, Ind., is agitating such a move with considerable earnestness, it is stated.

A. Van Horn, a car builder at the east shops, received an ugly gash on the right side of the face yesterday by a bolt falling from a scaffold and hitting him. After the wound received attention at the hands of the shop clerk, who has charge of the medicine chest, Mr. Van Horne resumed work.

The delay in traffic caused by the cold weather was not confined to the railways leading into Fort Wayne. From all directions come the same complaint. A well known railway man said to a Sentinel reporter yesterday that he believed there was not a road in the state whose trains made their trips on schedule time.

Nin Kohlman, a Nickel Plate fireman, has secured a thirty days' leave of absence, which he will devote to visiting relatives in Ohio and elsewhere. This lay-off has resulted in several changes in engine crews A. F. Kartholl has taken Kohlman's place in the cab with Engineer M. F. McCarthy. George Conklin took Kartholl's place on yard engine 14, and Fred Lindenberg took Conklin's place on engine 6.

Our January Sale is over, with a last day round up, that was a fitting climax for the greatest business we have ever known in our present or former history. While our regular reduction sale is closed it is not the close of the

BARGAIN SEASON.

Our business year does not end until March 1, when we take inventory. Until then you will find extra bargains in all our departments.

We are aware that this has been a year of good trade throughout the whole country, every one in business has been a sharer in it, and we are not so selfish as to regret the prosperity that has come to our neighbors and competitors, especially so, when we have had so satisfactory a portion of it ourselves.

This, however, has only been a

Whetting of Our Appetites,

giving us a legitimate craving for more.

This natural desire of business men to see their enterprises grow and increase under their close application and effort, will be more realized by us in the coming year if

will accomplish it.

While we believe no medium for bringing ourselves and our wares to the notice of the public, is superior to the regular newspaper advertisement, yet there are means that can be used as adjuncts, that are pleasing and advantageous. And when we consider them legitimate, popular and profitable we will not hesitate to adopt them.

We propose to continue the presenting of the

to all our "cash" customers and also call attention to the really elegant and beautiful portrait enlarged to life size from the photograph of yourself, member of your family or friend, as you choose, that you are entitled to free of cost with each $25 worth of goods bought from us. Take your choice for the amount of your cash purchase from us.

YOUNG CHASE'S LIFE ENDS

FRACTURE OF SKULL CAUSE OF DEATH.

A Checkered Career and a Life Full of Trouble Brought to a Close—News of the Police.

The varied troubles of Mortimer Chase were ended by death at St. Joseph hospital yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when the young man succumbed to meningitis. The young man's father arrived from Grand Rapids on the noon train yesterday in time to witness the passing of his son, but not before unconsciousness prevailed.

The case of the unfortunate young man is peculiar in many respects and since he is dead, the veil of charity can well be thrown over his past career and his acts may as well be credited to natural laws as to natural perverseness. The immediate cause of his death was a fracture of the skull, which was shown upon a post mortem examination made by Dr. Barnett last evening. How the fracture was occasioned the police are unable to even conjecture, and the deceased man never gave a lucid account of it, although he stated that he had sustained a severe fall some time previous to his last arrest, never, however, specifying the exact date. He was arrested a little over a week ago and bound over for forging a check bearing the name of J. E. Fellows, superintendent of the book canvassing department of the Chicago Record-Herald. Previous to his trial on this charge, a man named Smith had filed an affidavit against him for attempting to beat a board bill. On the forgery charge Chase was sent to jail in default of $500 bail, and shortly it was learned that his home was at Grand Rapids and that he had been in trouble before It was shown that he had set fire to a hotel at Richmond and had been strongly suspected of being the promoter of a costly livery stable fire in the same city. A few days ago well developed symptoms of spinal meningitis appeared in his case and on Monday he was removed to St. Joseph hospital. Meanwhile his parents at Grand Rapids were notified and the balance of the story is told in the opening paragraph.

Popular information in police circles was to the effect that the young man's father was well-to-do and that the checkered career of the junior Chase was in part due to over indulgence on the part of the senior. When the elder Chase arrived in the city yesterday he went directly to the hospital and after the death of his son sought Superintendent Gorsline, to whom he told many things which are not of public interest.

Among some of the things of interest, however, which he told, was the admission that the boy had been a pervert all his life. The father is an electrician and not a wealthy man, or even of moderate means, as was supposed, but says that he has been kept poor all his life by his wayward son, who kept getting into trouble almost constantly. Since he was a mere boy he evinced an abnormal desire to see fires and was arrested times almost without number for little acts of incendiarism and for turning in false alarms of fire. He had just got out of his trouble at Richmond, heretofore referred to, when he came to Fort Wayne, and before the father was through settling for the last escapade he was notified that his boy had got into another. When he received the superintendent's telegram to come at once he did not have money enough to pay his railroad fare and it was only upon an explanation of the circumstances and through the intercession of friends that he secured a pass. He reluctantly admitted that he would not be able to provide transportation for the remains to Grand Rapids and suggested that the burial be here at county expense.

POLICE NOTES.

There was no police court this morning.

Day Patrolman Pageler is off duty for a day or two and Bobby Dickson is trying to do double duty down town. The frequent vacations of "Jack," as Pageler is popularly known, have given rise to considerable speculation, and on good authority it is stated that if he will marry the girl and establish himself in a home in Fort Wayne the entire police department will turn out to give him a genuine old-fashioned housewarming.

Sergeant Harkenrider was last evening called to a disturbance in the family of which "Dutch" Irwin is the ostensible head. Before the officer arrived "Dutch" had skipped out and the other unostensible head of the family told the sergeant that she'd take care of "Dutch" if he showed up again before morning. The officer believed her and went away.

John H. Disler, living near the city on the Piqua road has some troubles of his own. Yesterday he gave a trunk into the care of W. H. Lewis, a truck man to be delivered to the New York house on West Main street. Now he can't find the trunk, nor expressman, and wants the police department to watch the house, so that it don't get away.

Charles A. Sellers, a student at the medical college crossing the Nickel Plate track at Fulton street last night, slipped on the steep grade and immediately kicked fragments out of the sky. After he pulled himself together he found that he couldn't find his watch. In view of his evolutions he can not conjecture whether the watch went straight up or straight down, but says that if any watch is found in the neighborhood it probably belongs to him.

Deputy Prosecutor Frank Emrick had an exciting time while out sleighriding last night. At the Nickel Plate crossing on the New Haven road a couple of miles east of the city, he and his horse had a misunderstanding. Frank wanted to keep in the road and the horse insisted on going down the railroad track. The matter was compromised by the horse and cutter including Frank going over the dump down toward the canal bed. There was a brief shower of blankets, robes whips, prosecutors and cusswords, after which order was restored, and it was found that the damage to the outfit was not material. After that Frank had his way about it and the horse went down the road.

Charles Romy, ex-station master, all-around policeman and general merchant, has been heard from. He has applied to the Pinkerton agency at Chicago for a position, and refers to Superintendent Gorsline, Captain Diehl, Mayor Berghoff and others for recommendation. The Pinkerton agency sent a regular blank to Superintendent Gorsline for endorsement, which aforesaid blank is likely to get lost in the waste basket.

Clerk Smith, of the police station, emptied five shots from a revolver into Mendal Frank's dog this morning and then telephoned for the official dog expert, Mr. Tremmel. Officer Paul was ordered to kill the dog yesterday at Frank's request, but when he got there he found that a "foney" had been fixed up for him. The real dog was Smith's victim this morning.

LOCAL LINES.

Miss Minnie Kazelman and Frank Schramm won the prize waltz at Vogeley's hall last night.

Miss Lottie Thiesen has resigned her position in the Schantz studio and will take a course in the Business College.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ will hold a business and social meeting at the church Friday evening.

The Misses Kemp delightfully entertained the J. T. C. club and about twenty of their friends Tuesday night at a masquerade party. The house was tastefully decorated in the club colors, red and green, and music and progressive pedro were the features of the evening. Miss Emma Stahl and Edward Schuckman won first prizes and Miss Ada Barnett and Carl Burnett the consolations. A dainty luncheon was served afterward.

IN THE DARK...

If you buy HARDWARE "in the dark"—don't know much about it—you'd better come to a store that wouldn't risk its reputation for fair dealing by selling you anything untrustworthy. Among our extensive stock of strictly first class shelf hardware, we offer you special today LANTERNS, 44 cts; HATCHETS, 35 cts; HAND SAWS, 50 cts; SMOOTH PLANES, 50 cts; TACK HAMMERS, 10 cts; WOOD SAWS, 50 cts; AXES 60 cts; WIRE COAT AND HAT HOOKS, 10 cts. per doz. We generally compete with all competitors on prices, but we never cut qualities for the sake of cutting prices. All we ask you to do is judge us by the way the goods last—not merely by how little they cost you. We do business on a long range basis.

YOUNG CHASE'S LIFE ENDS

FRACTURE OF SKULL CAUSE OF DEATH.

A Checkered Career and a Life Full of Trouble Brought to a Close—News of the Police.

The varied troubles of Mortimer Chase were ended by death at St. Joseph hospital yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, when the young man succumbed to meningitis. The young man's father arrived from Grand Rapids on the noon train yesterday in time to witness the passing of his son, but not before unconsciousness prevailed.

The case of the unfortunate young man is peculiar in many respects and since he is dead, the veil of charity can well be thrown over his past career and his acts may as well be credited to natural laws as to natural perverseness. The immediate cause of his death was a fracture of the skull, which was shown upon a post mortem examination made by Dr. Barnett last evening. How the fracture was occasioned the police are unable to even conjecture, and the deceased man never gave a lucid account of it, although he stated that he had sustained a severe fall some time previous to his last arrest, never, however, specifying the exact date. He was arrested a little over a week ago and bound over for forging a check bearing the name of J. E. Fellows, superintendent of the book canvassing department of the Chicago Record-Herald. Previous to his trial on this charge, a man named Smith had filed an affidavit against him for attempting to beat a board bill. On the forgery charge Chase was sent to jail in default of $500 bail, and shortly it was learned that his home was at Grand Rapids and that he had been in trouble before. It was shown that he had set fire to a hotel at Richmond and had been strongly suspected of being the promoter of a costly livery stable fire in the same city. A few days ago well developed symptoms of spinal meningitis appeared in his case and on Monday he was removed to St. Joseph hospital. Meanwhile his parents at Grand Rapids were notified and the balance of the story is told in the opening paragraph.

Popular information in police circles was to the effect that the young man's father was well-to-do and that the checkered career of the junior Chase was in part due to over indulgence on the part of the senior. When the elder Chase arrived in the city yesterday he went directly to the hospital and after the death of his son sought Superintendent Gorsline, to whom he told many things which are not of public interest.

Among some of the things of interest, however, which he told, was the admission that the boy had been a pervert all his life. The father is an electrician and not a wealthy man, or even of moderate means, as was supposed, but says that he has been kept poor all his life by his wayward son, who kept getting into trouble almost constantly. Since he was a mere boy he evinced an abnormal desire to see fires and was arrested times almost without number for little acts of incendiarism and for turning in false alarms of fire. He had just got out of his trouble at Richmond, heretofore referred to, when he came to Fort Wayne, and before the father was through settling for the last escapade he was notified that his boy had got into another. When he received the superintendent's telegram to come at once he did not have money enough to pay his railroad fare and it was only upon an explanation of the circumstances and through the intercession of friends that he secured a pass. He reluctantly admitted that he would not be able to provide transportation for the remains to Grand Rapids and suggested that the burial be here at county expense.

POLICE NOTES.

There was no police court this morning.

Day Patrolman Pageler is off duty for a day or two and Bobby Dickson is trying to do double duty down town. The frequent vacations of "Jack," as Pageler is popularly known, have given rise to considerable speculation, and on good authority it is stated that if he will marry the girl and establish himself in a home in Fort Wayne the entire police department will turn out to give him a genuine old-fashioned housewarming.

Sergeant Harkenrider was last evening called to a disturbance in the family of which "Dutch" Irwin is the ostensible head. Before the officer arrived "Dutch" had skipped out and the other unostensible head of the family told the sergeant that she'd take care of "Dutch" if he showed up again before morning. The officer believed her and went away.

John H. Disler, living near the city on the Piqua road has some troubles of his own. Yesterday he gave a trunk into the care of W. H. Lewis, a truck man to be delivered to the New York house on West Main street. Now he can't find the trunk, nor expressman, and wants the police department to watch the house, so that it don't get away.

Charles A. Sellers, a student at the medical college crossing the Nickel Plate track at Fulton street last night, slipped on the steep grade and immediately kicked fragments out of the sky. After he pulled himself together he found that he couldn't find his watch. In view of his evolutions he can not conjecture whether the watch went straight up or straight down, but says that if any watch is found in the neighborhood it probably belongs to him.

Deputy Prosecutor Frank Emrick had an exciting time while out sleighriding last night. At the Nickel Plate crossing on the New Haven road a couple of miles east of the city, he and his horse had a misunderstanding. Frank wanted to keep in the road and the horse insisted on going down the railroad track. The matter was compromised by the horse and cutter including Frank going over the dump down toward the canal bed. There was a brief shower of blankets, robes whips, prosecutors and cusswords, after which order was restored, and it was found that the damage to the outfit was not material. After that Frank had his way about it and the horse went down the road.

Charles Romy, ex-station master, all-around policeman and general merchant, has been heard from. He has applied to the Pinkerton agency at Chicago for a position, and refers to Superintendent Gorsline, Captain Diehl, Mayor Berghoff and others for recommendation. The Pinkerton agency sent a regular blank to Superintendent Gorsline for endorsement, which aforesaid blank is likely to get lost in the waste basket.

Clerk Smith, of the police station, emptied five shots from a revolver into Mendal Frank's dog this morning and then telephoned for the official dog expert, Mr. Trammel. Officer Paul was ordered to kill the dog yesterday at Frank's request, but when he got there he found that a "foney" had been fixed up for him. The real dog was Smith's victim this morning.

IN THE DARK...

If you buy HARDWARE "in the dark"—don't know much about it—you'd better come to a store that wouldn't risk its reputation for fair dealing by selling you anything untrustworthy. Among our extensive stock of strictly first class shelf hardware, we offer you special today LANTERNS, 44 cts; HATCHETS, 35 cts; HAND SAWS, 50 cts; SMOOTH PLANES, 50 cts; TACK HAMMERS, 10 cts; WOOD SAWS, 50 cts; AXES 60 cts; WIRE COAT AND HAT HOOKS, 10 cts. per doz.

We generally compete with all competitors on prices, but we never cut qualities for the sake of cutting prices. All we ask you to do is judge us by the way the goods last—not merely by how little they cost you. We do business on a long range basis.
